When your eyes ache, sting or feel tired, it is Nature's warning — they are strained.

If you are wise, you will heed that warning and will have a complete examination of your eyes made and thus probably prevent serious eyesight trouble later on.

Can you afford to waste the nerve energy necessary to carry along defective eyes?

HOEDOWN DANCE AT AUDITORIUM

GYROS RESPONSIBLE FOR ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL EVENT LAST NIGHT

Another hoedown dance, given by the Gyro Club for the benefit of its playground, went over strong in the Auditorium last night. Nearly four hundred persons, dressed in all manner of rustic garb, tripped the light fantastic toe from 9 in the evening until 2.30 in the morning and then were only regretful that the night had passed so quickly and the fun was over.

The decoration committee for the event had gone to considerable pains in its work and the result was pleasing. Sheaves of wheat and oats went to lend a further country air to the proceedings and, with overalls and gingham, straw hats and sun bonnets, it took the minds of many back to the good old days "down on the farm."

There were many special features which made further for the enjoyment of the large crowd.

Lionel Holtby was, as usual, an efficient master of ceremonies while Bill Cruickshank and Leo Waugh handled the crowds at the door.

Music was by a seven-piece orchestra consisting of Charlie Balagno, conductor; Miss Jean Currie, piano; Kenny Rood, saxophone; Bob Arthur, Jr., violin; Billy Balagno, violin; Bill Cooper, banjo; Bob Greenfield, cornet, and Will Browne, xylophone.

Committees in charge of various features of the evening's proceedings were as follows:

General committee—Dr. L. W. Kergin (chairman), Doug Stork, Ralph Lepine, Charlie Mills, Roy Nichols.

Advertising—Ralph Lepine (chairman), Alex. Hunter, Frank Dibb, Roy Nichols, Eddie Mann.

Tickets—Bill Cruickshank (treasurer), Leo Waugh (doorman).

Music—Charlie Balagno (chairman), Billy Balagno.

Decorations—Doug Stork (chairman).

"What Happened to Jones"

An adaptation for the screen of George Broadhurst's famous stage success. Real, regular, riotous farce. What did happen to Jones? Oh, nothing much. A police raid drove him into a ladies' Turkish bath, then into women's clothes, then into a church where his best girl was being married to his worst friend. Outside of that it was a quiet day for him. What just did happen to Jones? That's what an army of people, a police force, a minister, a bride and her wedding guests and hosts of others wanted to know. Come and find out for yourself and spend one of the most enjoyable evenings of the year. Strong cast.

Reginald Denny, Marion Nixon, Melbourne MacDowell, Otis Harlan, John Elliott, Zasu Pitts, Emily Fitzroy, Frances Raymond and many others.
