F. E. ROBERTSON HEADS PREMIER ORGANIZATION AND SEASON TO OPEN ON OCTOBER 1

The annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Badminton Club took place last night with E. C. Gibbons, last year's president, in the chair. The financial report presented by Harold Thompson, treasurer, showed the company to be in good financial standing. It was reported that a number of last year's members had dropped out but a large crop of new applications were coming in and the club looks forward to a successful season. It was left with the executive to arrange for a hall and it is probable the club will play in the same place as last year. Any wishing to join are asked to send in their applications at once as the probability is the vacancies in the membership list + BOXING CHAMPIONSHIP will soon be filled. Officers were elected as follows:

President, F. E. Robertson. Vice-president, Mrs. George Bryant. Secretary, H. O. Crewe. Treasurer, Harold Thompson. Executive in addition to the officers.

Miss Rivet and H. F. Pullen. It is expected to commence the season's play on October 1 .

WILLARD VS. MORAN

There was no lack of composure in ten-round no-decision bout between Jess Willard and Frank Moran at Madison Square Garden, New York, March 25, 1916. The popular verdict went t Willard with Moran recorded as vo:

After the hostilities had subsided Willard exhibited a sore finger without comment, leaving the battered digit to do his talking for him.

Moran was not so reserved. He made no secret of the satisfaction he felt at his own performance and declared that but for his own efforts there would! have been no action.

Neither principal was injured seriously. Willard's thumb being restored to its normal state in due course. There were no casualties among the spectators.
