The Sign of Competency

That certificate you see in the Optometrist's office is a sign of competency.
The Province has given it as evidence that the owner has passed a rigid examination, showing his ability to care for your most precious possession—eyesight.
The owner of that certificate is known as a "registered Optometrist."

MEN'S BANQUET AT CATHEDRAL

Large Attendance and Interesting Addresses at Annual Event Last Night

LADIES IN CHARGE

Labor and Industry Themes Discussed by Some of Speakers After Dinner

The tenth annual men's banquet held in St. Andrew's Anglican Church last night was an outstanding success, well over two hundred men being in attendance. G. Percy Tinker presided over the gathering and the clergy of the diocese were represented by Archdeacon G. A. Rix and Rev. Walter Allen of Prince Rupert and Rev. A. J. Wright of Kincolith. Four large tables were laden with a bounteous repast served by the Women's Auxiliary. There was a splendid program of speeches and instrumental and vocal music. Special features of the evening were vocal solos by Miss Adele Advant, Mrs. D. D. McTavish of Victoria and S. K. Campbell, all of whom were in excellent voice. J. Gawthorn rendered a cornet solo. Mrs. R. P. Ponder was accompanist of the evening and community singing was led by Wallace C. Orchard. There were a number of five-minute talks which proved interesting and instructive and, in some cases, humorous.

S. D. Macdonald, president of the Trades & Labor Council, spoke on "Labor." He thanked Archdeacon G. A. Rix for interpretations he had given of the labor movement and counselled the advisability of round table conferences when differences arose between employers and the employed.

Col. J. W. Nicholls, comptroller of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., followed Mr. Macdonald and spoke on the subject of "Industry." He referred to the fear that often existed reciprocally between capital and labor and agreed with Mr. Macdonald that by direct negotiation much more satisfactory arrangements could be made.

Various Addresses

Taking as his subject "The Professions," Dr. H. E. Tremayne gave an outline of the development of medical practice from primative to modern times. He referred to the great advance of preventative measures in the treatment of disease and gave some interesting figures in comparing mortality from disease in the South African and Great Wars.

George Hill spoke on "Merchandising" stating that he, as a retailer, was the go-between the producer and the consumer. The requirements of the public for varieties, Mr. Hill stated, caused higher prices to prevail than would be the case if necessities only were demanded.

United States Consul E. A. Wakefield, who said it was the seventh time he had had the privilege of addressing the St. Andrew's Church men's banquet, opened along humorous lines and coming down to more serious matters, said it would be a better thing for the world if the cult of the "unknown soldier" were adopted in every day life.

Rev. Walter Allen gave a very interesting talk on church work in pioneer areas such as the Peace River district.

An inspiring address was given by Archdeacon G. A. Rix on the history and geography of the diocese of Caledonia. He made special reference to the work of the late lamented Archbishop F. H. DuVernet and spoke of the prospect for the appointment of a new bishop, stressing an appeal for support of the Diocesan Endowment Fund.

The gathering opened with the singing of the National Anthem and closed with "O Canada," "Should Auld Acquaintance Be Forgot" and "Blest be the Tie that Binds."

Ladies' Committee

The serving was in charge of a large ladies' committee consisting of Mrs. T. Andrew, general convener, Mrs. G. H. Arnott, Mrs. R. A. Creech, Mrs. H. O. Crew, Mrs. D. A. Candow, Mrs. J. P. Cade, Mrs. T. A. Clarke, Miss B. Coulter, Mrs. C. V. Evitt, Mrs. David Wilton, Mrs. H. T. Willett, Mrs. J. A West, Mrs. W. H. Vickers, Mrs. E. M. Tucker, Mrs. W. H. Tobey, Mrs. George Skuce, Mrs. Macey, Mrs. R. B. Morgan, Mrs. C. C. Mills, Mrs. Wallace C. Orchard, Mrs. A T Parkin, Mrs. G. A. Rix, Mrs. M. M. Stephens, Mrs. B. West, Mrs. G. A. Clothier, Mrs. Fred Pyle, Mrs. W. J. Greer, Mrs. C. W. Homer, Mrs. C. F. Kemp, Miss Lennox, Mrs. R. V. G. LePine, Mrs. E. C. LaTrace, Mrs. R. L. McIntosh, Mrs. E. McCoskrie and Mrs. Adam Mackie.

TOWN ELECTION AT SMITHERS

Nominations Took Place Monday and Election is to be Tomorrow

SMITHERS, Jan. 27.—An election is to be held here tomorrow to elect three commissioners to act as the village council for the next two years, and much keener interest is being taken than in any previous municipal election held in Smithers.

The nominations were made on Monday:

Groat, Jas. H., train despatcher. Nominated by F. Watson, seconded by J. S. Kennedy.

Hann, Ernest, carpenter Nominated by Geo. P. Whight, seconded by L. B. Warner.

Mayer, Sylva J., locomotive engineer. Nominated by C. W. Waite, seconded by W. J. Dawson.

McIntyre, John R., locomotive engineer. Nominated by N. P. Moran, seconded by C. A. Rowland.

Orchard, Edwin E., Hotel Proprietor. Nominated by Charles Ried, seconded by D. F. Hall.

Warner, Lawrence B., publisher. Nominated by L. S. McGill, seconded by E. T. Harris.

Of the nominees J. H. Groat and E. E. Orchard are members of the present board, while J. R. McIntyre served on the first council for a term.

ANGLICAN LADIES HONOR MRS. WILLETT

Presented With Life Membership at Gathering in Cathedral Yesterday

In recognition of her many years' faithful and efficient service as a member of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Anglican Church and her leadership of the Auxiliary in 1924, one of the organization's banner years, Mrs. H. T. Willett was presented yesterday afternoon at the Cathedral with a life membership in the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church of Caledonia. Mrs. G. A. Rix read the address, Mrs. Lionel Holtby presented the certificate and Mrs. T. Andrew, the gold Winchester Cross which is significant of the honor that was conferred. Mrs. Willett replied feelingly. There was a large gathering of ladies in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Willett will leave on Friday morning's steamer for Vancouver where they will reside. Mrs. Willett has long been identified with work of the church in the city and her departure is causing distinct regret to her many friends.

SPORT CHAT

Organization of a badminton club has been completed in Anyox. There is a big membership and great interest is being manifested in the game. Perhaps it may be possible to arrange some inter-town games between Prince Rupert and the smelter town before long. The officers of the Anyox Badminton Club are: President, James Wilson; secretary treasurer, Mrs. E. J. Conway, executive, Mrs. W. F. Eve and E. G. Brown.

The gymnasium at Anyox seems to be one of the most popular institutions in the town if attendance records may be taken as any criterion. During the months of November and December, the number of persons attending the Beach Gymnasium totalled 5,615. This included school children, basketball players and spectators and made an average of ninety persons per day including Sundays. When the Anyox gymnasium is put to such good use, does it not stress the need for such an institution here in Prince Rupert? However, in spite of agitation, there seems to be nothing doing yet.

The city council last night decided to subscribe to the Municipal News at a cost of four dollars a year.
