OLD MEN TO BE DISCUSSED

Civic Committee to Confer with Trades and Labor Council and Ratepayers' Association.

Delegations from the Trades & Labor Council and the Ratepayers' Association are to be invited to confer with the Board of Works and finance committee when the recommendation from the Board of Works that a special gang for old and incapacitated men on city work be formed is discussed next Friday evening. When the matter came up at last night's council meeting, Ald. Casey reported that the Trades & Labor Council had taken certain objection to such a gang being formed. He thought however, there was a good deal of merit in the recommendation of the Board of Works and that the common sense of it would be seen by the Trades & Labor Council if the proposal were more fully explained. He, therefore, moved that a Trades and Labor Council delegation be invited to meet with the city committees. Ald. Brown seconded the motion which was carried with the inclusion, on the suggestion of Ald. Stephens, of an invitation to the Ratepayers' Association which was equally interested.

TEA AND SALE PROVED ENJOYABLE EVENT AT MRS. TREMAYNE'S HOME

Nice Little Sum Realized as Result For Anglican Cathedral W. A.

One of the largest and most successful teas ever held under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. E. Tremayne, Hays Block. The event was patronized by a large number of ladies and the sum of $55 was realized.

Mrs. T. Andrew, president of the Auxiliary, received with Mrs. Tremayne, Mrs. J. C. McLennan poured and those assisting in serving were Mrs. C. V. Evitt, Mrs. H. O. Crewe, Mrs. W. H. Vickers, Mrs. C. C. Mills and Mrs. Jack Barnsley. The home cooking table was in charge of Mrs. Wallace C. Orchard and Mrs. R. A. Creech. Mrs. A. E. Bazett-Jones acted as cashier.

During the afternoon, Miss Nada Johnstone sang vocal solos accompanied by Miss Blanche Curtin, who also gave several much appreciated piano selections.

N.M. & R. CO. MOVING SOUTH

Local Concern, Reincorporated, Will Operate Reduction Plant on Vancouver Island

The N.M. & R. Fish Co., which has operated out of this port for several years, has taken over a $25,000 fish oil and meal plant at Toquart Harbor in Barkley Sound on the west end of Vancouver Island and is now cleaning up its outfit and equipment here before moving south. Capt. Peter Rorvik, one of the principals of the company, will leave for the south on Friday morning and G. F. Macdonald will leave in about ten days' time. The future headquarters of the concern will be at Port Alberni.

The company will be reincorporated as the Standard Fisheries, Ltd. with James Neville, president; Capt. Rorvik, manager, and George Macdonald, secretary treasurer. The Standard Fisheries will operate the fleet of the concern while another company to be known as the Marine Products Ltd., with capitalization of $25,000, will operate the plant. Capt. Rorvik will be president of the latter concern and George Macdonald, secretary.

It is expected that the plant will be able to handle 50 tons of fish per day, pilchards at first and later dogfish and sharks. The output of the plant for six months has already been contracted for. In the fall the concern will engage in the dry salting of herring.

The two boats Malamute and Rose Point, which are now in Vancouver, will be used in connection with the plant. The third of the campany's boats, the N.M.R., has been sold to P. Ryan of Inverness who will use it as a seiner and packer.

ODDFELLOWS' WHIST DRIVE AND DANCE IS A SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

A large crowd attended the whist drive and dance held in the Boston Hall last night by the Oddfellows and Rebekahs and the event was an outstanding success.

Thirty tables of whist resulted in winners as follows: Ladies' first, Mrs. D. C. Schubert; ladies' consolation, Mrs. G. V. Wilkinson; men's first, W. H. Long; men's consolation, F. W. Hart.

Refreshments were served and dancing followed, music being furnished by Arthur's Orchestra. The party broke up at 2 o'clock this morning.

A. R. Phillips was master of ceremonies, J. McAuley presided at the door and the committee in charge consisted of Mrs. S. V. Cox, convener, Mrs. Bert Morgan, Mrs. Thomas Priest, Mrs. Jack McIntosh, George McAuley, J. McIntosh and S. V. Cox.

The Slight Cold Of To-day May Be Serious To-morrow

On the first appearance of a cough or cold, do not neglect it, but get rid of it at once before it has a chance to grow worse and becomes settled on the lungs, for once it does become deep-seated you are going to have a lot of trouble in getting rid of it.

Our advice to you is that on the first sign of a cough or cold you should procure a bottle of as by its timely use you may save yourself many years of suffering from some serious bronchial or lung troubles.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

"Dr. Wood's" has been on the market for the past 37 years; so you are not experimenting with some new and untried remedy; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

COLD STORAGE WON HEAVY VICTORY IN BILLIARD TOURNEY

The Cold Storage team lengthened its lead over the Grotto in the second division billiard league last night by a big margin when the former team won the scheduled tournament by the substantial aggregate of 696 to 570. The high break of the evening, 28, was made by W. Long.

Individual scores were as follows:

Bert Morgan (Grotto) 58; W. Long (Cold Storage) 150.

J. Hiliman, 150; A. Macdonald, 96.

J. Beesley, 148; A. Harvey, 150.

G. Howe, 95; J. May, 150.

S. Suga, 119; H. Parr, 150.

League standing to date is as follows:

	Games	Tl.	Aver.
P. R. B. P.	7	4961	709
Cold Storage	8	5442	680
Grotto	7	4599	657
G. W. V. A.	7	4159	594
P. R. Fish Co.	7	4102	586

SPORT CHAT

Unseemly conduct breaks out once in a while even in the highest of sporting circles but it is no better liked there than it is in the humblest places. Here is a comment that the Manchester Guardian had to make on a recent international rugby game between Wales and England when there was some rather unsportsmanlike conduct displayed: The Rugby match between Wales and England, at Cardiff, last Saturday, brought little credit to the great game. Temper, the first element the sportsman is supposed to control, ruled the football, blows were exchanged, other petty and major fouls committed, and had the referee done his duty with the sternness the occasion demanded half a dozen players would have been deprived of further active interest in the proceeding before half-time.

It is not for us to inquire into the origins of the trouble. For weeks Wales had been telling itself and its forwards that the latter were strong enough to push the English pack off the field—and disillusionment was bitter. The English players, for their part, disliked the "off-side" tactics adopted by a section of the Welsh backs.

So it developed into an ill-tempered, undoubtedly hard, and above all, wholly disappointing game, in which England fell away and was adequately rewarded by sharing the honors for the third time in the series of contests between the two countries. But championships are a poor bargain for lost sportsmanship. Gradually and insidiously the prize has become a thing of far greater value than the game itself. It is a tendency that the Rugby rulers will do well to stamp out quickly and relentlessly.
