Three Brothers Pleaded Guilty to Conspiring to Defraud by False Pretenses

LONDON, Feb. 17 .- Six years penal servitude was the sentence given the three Mandeville Brothers aged 51, 56 and 57 respectively after they had pleaded guilty to the offense of conspirling to defraud by false pretenses.

Eustace Fulton, counsel for the Piano and Wurlitzer mili- | prosecution, said that, broadly tary band organ, style 125; | speaking, by means of a paper called the Financial Mail and advertisements and circulars which were sent broad cast to the publie the defendants induced people to entrust them with money by pretending that they were going to use the money for the purpose of investing it on the Stock Exchange. The case for the prosecution was that instead of doing that they never made any linvestments at all, but declared from time to time that they had made investments and that they had earned profits. Those profits were widely advertised to the public and induced other persons to believe that the profits! were real, and the accused were then entrusted with further! moneys, which eventually amounted to a very large sum in-

GEORGE LAND POLICY

Reorganization Impossible and Drifting From Bad to Worse, He Says

Sir Alfred Mond who has been a lifetong Liberal in England recently decided to change his allegiance and thrown in his lot with the Conservatives. In making the change he wrote the following letter to former Premier Asquith:
