FORMAL FAREWELL OF HOSPITAL BOARD TO BANK MANAGER

The hospital board bade formal farewell last night to H. H. Little, director, who is leaving shortly for Vancouver to which city he has been transferred in the service of the Royal Bank. President S. K. Campbell said that, in the departure of Mr. Little, the hospital was losing a valuable member and the city a good citizen.

BUGS IN WATER OBJECTED TO

Sample Submitted to Daily News With Wrigglers in it Cause Discussion

A bottle of city water containing tiny creatures that swim, turn somersaults and do acrobatic stunts, arrived at the editorial desk today and is so engrossing in its interest that it is difficult for the staff to work.

"Those harmless larvae won't hurt anybody," was another expression of opinion given. Others objected to taking their meal that way and indignantly asked if there was not some supervision over the kind of creatures allowed to wriggle into the city water pipes.

RICHARD BARTHELMESS with DOROTHY GISH

"THE BEAUTIFUL CITY"

A vivid photo-play that reveals the loves and hates of the "other half" of a great city. Dick as the poor flower seller they called failure and dreamer, who gave all for a brother. Dorothy Gish as Mollie, his girl, whose tender love heals pain. See their great fight to crawl from the shadows of the Ghetto to the sunshine of the beautiful city beyond. A picture of many beautiful scenes depicting the ceaseless struggle of hidden humanity for happiness. A drama of the lights and shadows of New York. Strong cast.

Richard Barthelmess, Dorothy Gish, William Powell, Frank Puglia, Florence Auer and others.

The New Flats

"Well," asked Brown, "have you furnished your new flat yet?"

"No," answered Smith, "not quite. By the way, can you tell me where I could buy a folding loath brush?"
