NEW HAZELTON

Paddy Creigh spent a couple of days in town the first of the week. He was in the Soda Creek district for some time and has a claim adjoining the property that gave up $12,000 a week. For the past couple of months he has been at his old love, the Brian Boru, on Rocher de Boule mountain up from Skeena Crossing.

Ed. Cusick of Portland, and a friend arrived Wednesday night and are guests of C. W. Dawson at the Omineca Hotel. They are here for a fishing outing.

Harvesting has started. The first crop of alfalfa was cut at the hospital farm on Tuesday. On Monday some Indians started cutting timothy. In another few days haying should be general in this district. The weather has been perfect for rapid growth and heading the timothy. The clover is all in bloom and the air is filled with its fragrance. The corn and sunflower crops are growing inches per day.

On Thursday Mrs. Mathieson of the hospital was hostess at a tea in honor of Mrs. A. D. Darlington who is leaving Hazelton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Darlington are leaving Hazelton early in July. They will first go to Skagway for a time but will probably locate in Victoria where Mr. Darlington has a brother in business. They have been here for several years and have many friends who will regret their departure.

School closed on Wednesday for the summer. The entrance and high school examinations were written in Hazelton with Mr. Greenaway of Kispiox presiding.

Mrs. Marshall returned recently after spending the last ten months in Vancouver where her sons attended school. She spent a couple of days with Mrs. Stoynoff at Dorreen on the way home.

TERRACE NOTES

H. H. Jones, Victoria and Mrs. L. Weeden, Vancouver, partners in a mineral claim at Kalum Lake, returned to town on Wednesday after spending the winter in the south and left on Thursday for the Lake. They were accompanied by Mrs. Weeden's daughter, Miss Dorothy Weeden.

Mr. and Mrs. T. McDougall and two children, of Anyox, arrived on Thursday to spend a holiday at Hill Farm.

A. E. Goodenough, Smithers, was a business visitor on Thursday.

The timber cruising party of Rolston & Montizambert, Vancouver, composed of J. M. Rolston, H. A. Cornwall, J. E. McKenzie, E. Barclay, Geo. Dewar, K. Buchanan and C. Reid, who have been cruising in the district south of Lakelse Lake arrived back in town on Wednesday and left on Thursday for the coast.

A. Egan returned on Wednesday from a trip to Vancouver and left for Kalum Lake on Thursday.

Waterfront Whiffs

"No, thanks. I had about twenty sandwiches, five nut bars, four bags of peanuts, six oranges and about ten suckers." Now don't you think the regatta committee should have handed each boy a bottle of castor oil and thus finished the job properly? (signed) Mother.

Tourists in Harbor

While the Princess Louise was in port on Wednesday afternoon a number of her tourist passengers availed themselves of the opportunity to take a cooler in the balmy waters of the harbor. A party of young men and young ladies took the great plunge from the floats of the P.R. Boathouse and, judging from the manner in which they slid over the water, they had evidently all been born at sea. That the water was real hot can be gleaned from the remark of one of the young ladies "Come on in, the water is far warmer than in the creek at home." Now, for a real cool swim we'll have to find out where that particular creek is located.

The pleasure yacht May Mac, under charter to the B.C. Packers, called into port on Thursday en route to the Queen Charlotte Islands and tied up at the P.R. Boathouse floats. The May Mac is 40 feet long and is powered with a 30 h.p. 4 cylinder Fairbank C.O. engine giving her a speed of 8 knots per hour. The yacht left for the islands yesterday.

The power yacht Winthrop of Tacoma, with a party of American tourists aboard who are making a cruise of the northern Pacific coast, called in port this week for supplies and left on Thursday for the southern trip.

Spanish Battleships

A species of jellyfish strange to these waters have put in an appearance this spring at the Dundas Island trolling grounds where the water is said to be literally teeming with them. They are bluish in color, of oval shape and about the size of a dollar bill but the strangest feature about them is the fin-like protusion which, when projected through the surface of the water, is said to actually have the effect of a sail in propelling them in their movements. Given the name "Spanish battleship," these strange protoplasmic creatures are believed to have come from tropical waters on account of the warmth in the north this year. It is said that the sea water in this district is 20 degrees warmer this summer than usual.
