in a beautiful new setting

The 32-piece "COURT CABINET"

The charm that surrounds Hampton Court—latest achievement of Community designers—has been greatly enhanced by the introduction of this splendid chest.

Hand-carved in effect, and suggesting the gorgeous chests of early English days, "Court Cabinets" are sure to have a tremendous vogue.

As settings for fine silverware nothing could be more appropriate, yet the cost is surprisingly low.

DR. LITTLE HAD BIG SURPRISE

FINDS THAT PRINCE RUPERT'S WEATHER IS A WHOLE LOT BETTER THAN ADVERTISED

"The excellence of your weather surprises me. I always heard it rained here." Such was the remark of Dr. Charles S. Little, brother of A. C. Little of this city and head of a large hospital for the feeble minded at Thele, sixty miles up the Hudson River from New York City, who arrived in Prince Rupert's sunshine Saturday morning accompanied by Mrs. Little. Dr. Little, like many other visitors to this city, has learned that Prince Rupert's weather is a whole lot better than it is usually advertised to be.

It is Dr. Little's first trip to what the most of New Yorkers describe as the Far West. He came out by way of the Santa Fe Railroad through the Colorado Canyon to California. He has found his long trip one of great charm and the only time he encountered rain was at Vancouver. This week he and Mrs. Little will return East accompanied by Mr. Little of this city who will enjoy a two months' vacation revisiting old scenes in Vermont, New Hampshire, and other Eastern sections.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

A record in the matter of fish specials was established the day before yesterday when a train of sixteen cars pulled out ahead of the regular train. In addition to these cars another went out on the regular for local distribution.

C. R. Gordon of Vancouver, inspector of factories for British Columbia, is in the city on official duties. He has been at Granby Bay where he inspected the Granby Co.'s works.

C. D. Jones, who has on many occasions contributed to the enjoyment of Prince Rupert audiences, will leave in a few days for the East. He expects to proceed to Europe where he will enlist for service in the Great War.

GOSSIP ABOUT WOMEN

When men placed the eagle on the national coat of arms of Germany as an emblem of manly strength, says Dr. Helen Schulte-Vaerting, women's rights advocate, they paid the greatest possible compliment to womankind. Among the eagles it is the female which represents strength, she claims.

Frau Schulte-Vaerting suspects that men had one put over on them by the women of ancient Egypt. "Quite likely it was women of Egypt during the period of petteicoat government there," she asserts, "who claimed the eagle as national emblem, because the stateliness and strength of the female eagle, far surpassing that of the male, exactly suited their fancy."

QUEEN FOND OF GREEN

Ex-Queen Elizabeth of Greece has none of the superstition of the average Englishwoman about green. Although now in mourning and dressed in black she always wears a big emerald ring and other jewelry of pearls, emeralds and jade. When not in mourning she is very fond of wearing entire costume of green and has a rare collection of old jade.

Collecting old silver is a hobby with her. When the people of Cromer discovered ex-Queen Elizabeth's love for old English silver they presented her and her husband with two rare old silver plates and an antique tea caddy.

IRISH ACTRESS IN U.S.

Miss Una O'Connor who has left Ireland for America to play in two Irish plays, "Autumn Fire" and "Distinguished Villa," is one of the most brilliant of the younger Irish actresses trained in the Abbey theatre in Dublin, which is the only theatre in English speaking countries to enjoy a state subsidy.

Her American engagement followed on her success in London in "Autumn Fire," by T. C. Murray, who is a Dublin schoolmaster. He is a dramatist in his spare time.
