GUN POWDER PLOT IN GREAT BRITAIN.

This is the anniversary of the gunpowder plot, a rather trivial said the majority spawned in the fourth event, which ws used for many years to keep up the ill-feeling which year spending one year in a lake and prevailed between Protestants and Catholics in Great Britain and which was even carried by some into this new free country in an old started to travel down stream tail attempt to perpetuate the reign of hate between alleged followers of first. Happily today the event is not looked upon as River they had been able to watch of any importance and is classed with other historic stories of the them and count the number leaving. constant struggles which took place in the early days.

Briefly, there was a Protestant King in England and a plot mouth of the river and others went was concocted by some Catholic families living in the north, to hire directly into deep water. a man to blow up the Houses of Parliament and kill the Protestant leaders and the King at one stroke. It failed, although it is said because the fish could not be caught that the train of powder was laid and everything was in readiness on other fish but for setting a match to it, when the plot was discovered and the hired and similar food. assassin, Guy Fawkes, was captured. While some Catholics are said An interesting speculation for scient to have been responsible for initiating the plot, it is also said that lists was as to what brought the salmon it was a Catholic who refused to be party to the plot who gave away back to its spawning grounds. It was the information nd upset the plans. Whether this were true or not the sex urge that started it but what is immaterial. TRUNK ROAD MOVEMENT TO BE COMMENDED.

The building of a trunk road out of Prince Rupert was commenced last year and a good deal of money was spent getting through a difficult part of the route. It has been continued this season and substantial progress has been made, as will be realized by any who may happen to drive out that way.
