ARCTIC TRIP TAKING SHAPE

Donald MacMillan to go in Search of Norse Relics in Far North

WISCASSET, Me., March 16.—Plans are shaping for Cammander Donald MacMillan's cruise to the north in search of Norsemen relics next summer, it is learned here. A close friend of the explorer said that an auxiliary schooner is now building at Bath and that three of MacMillan's associates on previous voyages will go with him.

Rowe B. Melcalf of Providence is having the auviliary schooner built. She will measure 80 feet and will be similar in construction to the Bowdoin, which bore MacMillan on last year's Arctic expedition and on other voyages to the northward.

The cruise will start in June and will last probably three months. Greenland, Labrador, and Iceland will be visited. Eskimos have told MacMillan that stone buildings more than 100 years old are to be found, and he hopes to locate and investigate them.

Those now slated to accompany MacMillan include Ralph Robinson of Merrimac, Mass., the explorers chief aide for his last three voyages, John M. Jaynes of Somerville, Mass., who has been with MacMillan before as engineer; and Dr. Walker Kellogg of the University of Michigan, who went North with MacMillan last year. Dr. Kellogg is a noted scientist and an expert in the study of fish.

C. S. J. remarks: "A man never really knows whether he married a peach or a lemon until he happens to open a family jar."

A British fencing team has accepted an invitation to participate in the United States national championships for various weapons and will sail from England for New York on April 16. Major G. N. Dyer will be the team manager. The Col. Robert I. Simpson international trophy will be at stake.

Cologne golfers are jubilant since the British evacuation of the Cologne Country Club with the best 18-hole course in Germany. Not satisfied with the course when they took it over in 1919, the occupational forces made extensive improvements as a result of which it is one of the classiest in Eurpoe. There is talk of playing the German golf championships on it next fall.

When the directors of the Birmingham (England) Football Club successfully prosecuted a couple of spectators recently for using foul language while watching a match they received the compliment of the Bench upon their action. The offenders were fined forty shillings each and the Bench hoped that the action of the Football Club directors would have a good effect.

Children's Colds

Are quickly, pleasantly relieved by Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine

If children's colds are got rid of promptly there will be less tendency to pneumonia and consumption in later life. It is the neglected, hanging-on cold that weakens the lungs and develops into serious trouble.

No treatment for coughs and colds was ever so popular with the children as Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It is so pleasant to the taste, so delightfully soothing and healing and affords relief so quickly that children soon turn to it instinctively when choked up with a cold or annoyed by coughing.

It is mother's favorite treatment for croup and bronchitis, for she knows it will bring relief when the midnight coughing spasms set in. It is wise to always have a bottle at hand for prompt use in emergency.

"Little Annie Rooney"

The sweetest of comedy and the tenderest of pathos vie with each other in the story of Little Annie Rooney, a story that plays a tune of life and love on the heart strings of humanity and that has no dull moments nor slack in pace. Happiness and heart aches, hard knocks and softened blows, sweethearts and rivals, alley fights and street games, feature the heart story of this little waif of New York's slums, and never was Mary Pickford more appealing, more laughter-provoking, more tear-compelling, than in this portrayal of the impish, ragamuffin, hoydenish role that made her The World's Sweetheart. Distinguished cast.
