Don't Neglect The Children's Coughs and Colds

Mrs. Wm. W. Card, Bancroft, Ont., writes:—"Last winter my three children had very bad colds, and they would cough all night long, which was very annoying to the rest of the family.

I could get nothing to help them until one night, a friend who was staying with me, advised me to give them

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

I immediately got some, and after I had used four bottles of it my children became quite well again, thanks to Dr. Wood's."

STAKING CLAIMS IN SILVER AND GOLD AREA OF GREAT SLAVE LAKE

FORT SMITH, N.W.T., March 20.—The arrival of outsiders is adding greatly to the excitement in the settlements close to the new silver and gold field. All the treaty Indians have gone out to stake today and persons whose positions debar them from staking are buying claims.

Fitzgerald residents had all recorded with Mr. Haight, emergency recorder, but it was suddenly discovered that Mr. Haight could not take the records of more than five people, so another rush was staged on the Fort Smith office where all the papers were once more recorded.

Many people are arriving from the south, including old time prospectors, and it seems that every white trapper on the Slave has come down to stake his claim.

COCOA—3 tbsp. cocoa, 2 tbsp. sugar, ½ cup hot water, few grains salt, 1½ cups Carnation Milk diluted with 1½ cups water, ¼ tsp. vanilla. Scald the diluted milk in a double boiler. Mix cocoa, sugar and salt and add the hot water. Cook over a low flame from 10 to 15 minutes stirring occasionally to prevent burning. Add to the cocoa the scalded milk; return to the double boiler and continue cooking for 10 minutes. Whisk with a dover egg beater just before serving. Place a marshmallow in the cup and pour over it the hot cocoa. This serves four.

SOW WENT MAD AND CHARGED AUCTIONEER

LONDON, March 22.—The cattle market at Selby, in Yorkshire, a forty-stone sow suddenly went mad. It charged the door of the auctioneer's box, smashing it in, and tearing away the seat where the auctioneer sat with his clerk. The sow seized the leg of the auctioneer, who scrambled over the top of the box into the sale ring. The sow put its paws on top of the ledge of the box and glared at the buyers. It took ten minutes to secure the animal, and the auctioneer's box was completely wrecked.
