IN the handling of fine fabrics, particularly silks, satins and crepes, it is very easy to pull a thread and damage a dress in the making.

Dress-makers tell us the exclusive use of Lux as a household soap keeps the hands soft and white, the skin smooth, so that they can handle the most filmy and delicate of things, without danger to the fabric.

You will appreciate the gentle efficiency of Lux, even though you do not do your own sewing.

For the whole family wash, for dishwashing, bathing and shampooing, Lux has no equal. And Lux is as safe to use as soft water.
