ANNUAL CAMP ALPINE CLUB

Mountaineers From All Over the World Are Now at Jasper Park.

JASPER, July 28.—More than fifty mountain climbers have left or passed through Jasper this week on their way to attend the annual meeting of the Canadian Alpine Club in the Tonquin Valley, about thirty miles southwest of park headquarters. Their immediate destination was Geikie, the first station west of Jasper, on the Canadian National Railways. Here they detrained and commenced the long hike into the Tonquin over the Meadow Creek trail. Most of the party have already reached camp, though several planned to pitch camp on the pass and utilize two days on the trip.

These fifty Alpinists represent only the vanguard of the main body, which is expected to number considerably more than one hundred. Among them are a large number of women, probably the largest proportion of women climbers ever attending the camp. A distinct international flavor is lent to the gathering by the presence of climbers from the United States and Great Britain, as well as from various parts of India. Among the better known Alpin-ists already on their way to the camp are Dr. J. W. A. Hickson, Montreal, president of the Canadian Alpine Club; Howard Palmer, New London, Conn., president of the American Alpine Clubs; R. B. Hartley, Bobby and John H. Hoag, London, England, members of the Alpine Club; F. D. Waterman, Summit, New Jersey, a prominent American engineer and an Alpinist of distinction, and W. Mellarby Forman, London, England, member of the Alpine Club.

Aged Mountaineer
An interesting feature is the presence at the camp of Dr. H. P. Nichols, of New York City, past president of the American Alpine Club. Dr. Nichols is more than 70 years of age and will undoubtedly be the oldest member at the camp. In spite of his advanced years he is remarkably active. For the past two months he has been a guest at Jasper Park Lodge and has utilized the time to get himself in shape for the club meeting by climbing the Whistle Range of mountains each week. Although not more than 8,000 feet high, this range presents a number of difficulties and is a particularly severe test for a man of the age of Dr. Nichols. Dr. Hickson and Mr. Palmer did not accompany the members into the camp through Geikie. They have set themselves the task of finding a route through past Mount Edith Cavell, Throne Mountain and Mount Fraser. If time will permit it is their intention to attempt to ascend at least one unclimbed peak en route.

Among those who left Jasper Park Lodge yesterday for the camp were Miss Isobel Secord; Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sherwin, Minneapolis; Miss Irene Smith, Regina; Mrs. Knight Wilson, Regina; Miss Esther Thompson, Winnipeg; Miss Nan McKay, Saskatoon; Miss M. F. Cooper, Miss Helena Burns; Miss A. H. Fugg, Cyril G. Waterman, Summit, New Jersey; Dr. H. P. Nichols, New York; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Walsh Jr., Lawrence, Long Island; W. McHardy Forman, London, Eng.; Miss Hazel I. Reid, Toronto; Miss M. E. Nickel, Toronto, and Miss Golena Nickel, Calgary.

Site of Camp
Moat Lake, at the foot of the Rampart Range is the site of the camp and the base from which the main climbing operations will be carried out. To the great majority of the members the territory will be entirely new, but to Cyril G. Wates, of Edmonton, it will be a renewal of an old friendship. It was from here in the summer of 1924 that he, in company with Val Fynn, of St. Louis, and A. R. Geddes, of Calgary, carried out the successful assault on Mount Geikie, which on four previous occasions had resisted the attempts to invade its crest.

NESTLING SPARROW CAUSES TRAFFIC TO JAM IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, July 28.—It does not take much to cause a traffic jam on Broadway. Even one of the billions of sparrows can do it—if he happens to be a very small sparrow, quite unable to fly.
On the hottest afternoon of the year an angry traffic cop shoved his way through a crowd that threatened to spread from the sidewalk into the street. He found a nestling, apparently enjoying his position at the centre of things.
"Hubb!" said the cop. "Can't arrest him for blockin' traffic. What'll we do with him?"
Much craning of necks failed to discover a nest on any of the high buildings, and the problem was becoming serious when a girl, generously roused and with many heads, picked up the cause of the trouble.
"I'll take him," she said. "My canary just died."

NEW ARRANGEMENTS AT ELLIS ISLAND

WASHINGTON, July 28.—At the request of their steamship lines and the Canadian government, the practice of permitting Ellis Island to be used by Canadian officials for the examination of passengers bound for Canada will be discontinued, and other arrangements will be made for the examination of persons entering Canada by way of New York.

It is understood that this request has been favorably considered, as was the former one from Canada by the American immigration officials who explain that this does not apply to Canadian citizens who are always passed through promptly but to other persons going to Canada by way of New York.
As to whether the recent criticism of passengers landing in New York as to the character of examination to which they were subjected had anything to do with the new arrangement, immigration officials declined to state.

"WHAT FOOLS MEN"

If you think you are a wise guy, come on over and see what one snappy, modern, 1926 peach could do to you with the wing of one beautiful eyelash. See how she could fool you, toy with you, break your heart if she wished to. If you think you know all about women, just come over and learn one thing more. Come and learn to fall for them gracefully without making a fool of yourself. All star cast.

FELT: HATS

That Felt Hats are popular and sold for summer wear on a big scale is the opinion of "WOMEN'S WEAR" Magazine, published in Toronto. BUT—

WHY IS IT SO POPULAR?

- 1st: Because it is stylish and neat looking.
- 2nd: Because we have them in any color to match your costume.
- 3rd: Because it does not soil easily with rain.
- 4th: Because it is reasonable in price. Our hats, although of the best makes, such as RITZ & BAKER, range from $2.75 to $4.75.
