Tide Turning Toward Canada.

The tide is turning towards Canada and people from the United States will be coming here in large numbers this year, according to the vice-president of the Canadian National Railways who is in charge of the immigration department of the cently organized at the United L. McClung, M.L.A., in an address line. Farmers from the other side are looking for new locations Church. An address was given to local Gyros at their weekly and Canada is beckoning to them. We are such near neighbors that we cannot live our fives wholly apart. Naturally we are one but politically we are separated by an imaginary line which is easily crossed.

Just now it seems as if it was to be Canada's turn. The tide of progress is setting this way and the people will come.

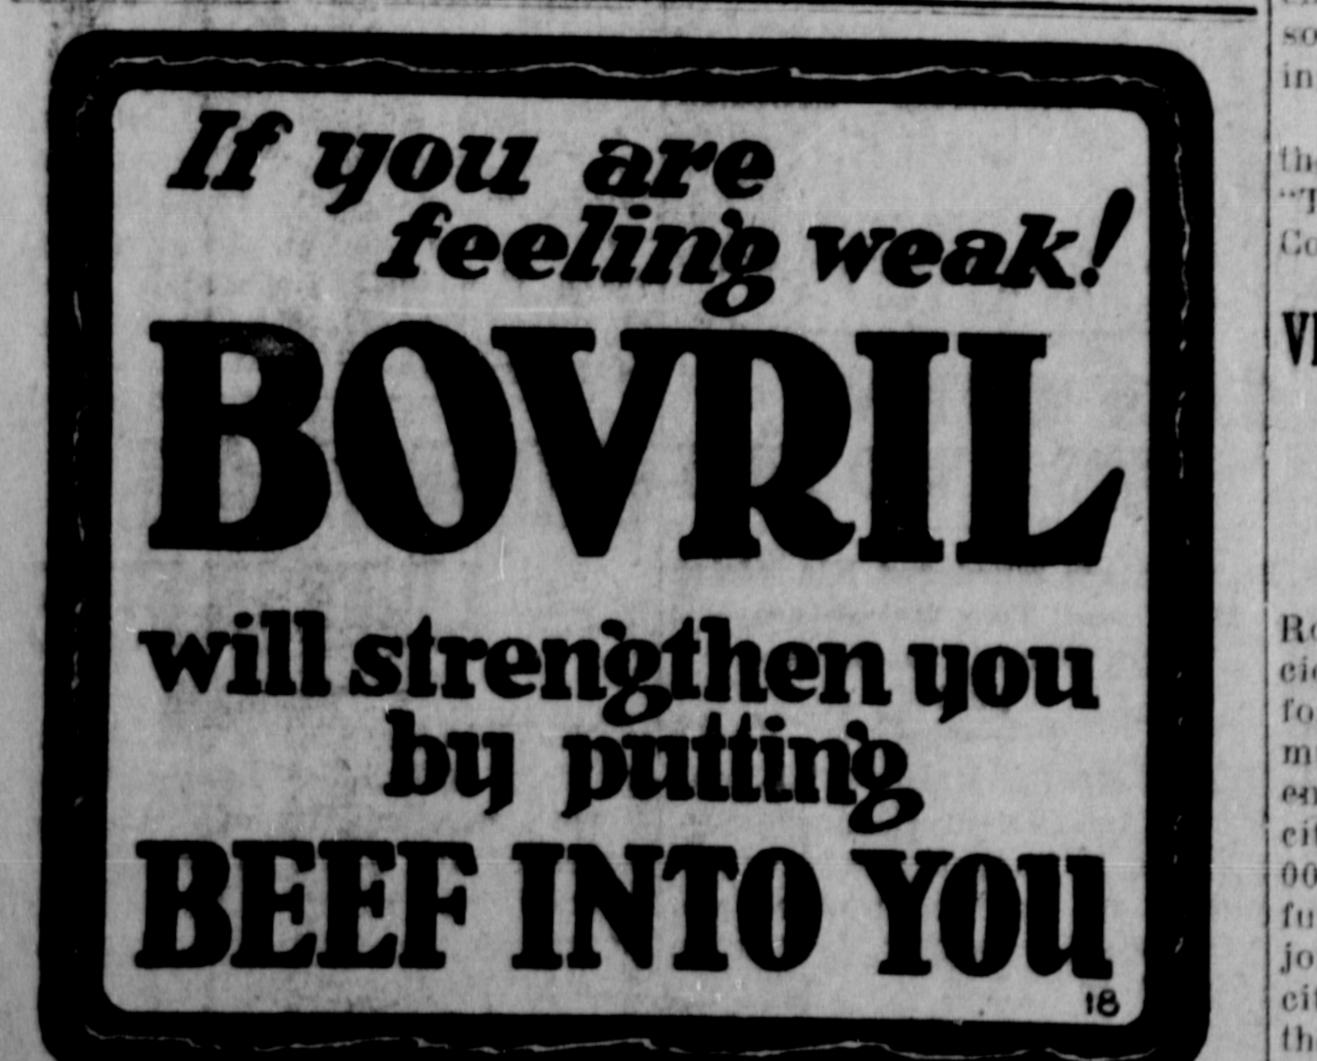

Talk Of Quota Is

Much Too Previous. The suggestion that there be a quota established against all but British countries is foolish just now. We want population. Our waste places need filling and when there are people in need of farm homes it would be almost criminal to deny them the land. If we fill these lands with a white population the Orienta! First of Series of Lectures Given menace will disappear but as long as the country is not inhabited! there is a great temptation to the people across the Pacific to use them. We cannot act the part of the dog in the manger. Either we must fill up the vacant lands or allow those who wish Baptist Church was well filled shiners on the government vodka

Power Will Be Next Proposition.

The next big thing for Prince Rupert to tackle will be the matter of securing an adequate supply of power for all purposes. When the elevator is operating and the new Big Bay lumber mill is completed and using electric power and all the other demands are being supplied there will be no power left to offer! new industries. The question will then arise as to what steps shall be taken.
