EDITOR EVENS UP ACCOUNTS

SOMETIMES IT DOESN'T PAY TO CRITICIZE YOUR HOME TOWN NEWSPAPER

A West Texas editor got tired of being called a liar because of an occasional typographical error or a slight disarrangement of the facts in publishing a commonplace news item. In his wrath he announced:

"A lot of people in this town fall out with the editor and brand him a liar when the ordinary mistake of life shows up in the paper. You have a little charity and fellow feeling for every man in town but your editor. You claim that you want facts and d——d if we don't get them to you. Read the next issue of this sheet and you will see facts, with the bark off.

"I admit that I have been a liar, an editorial liar, ever since I have been editing this sheet, but I have never printed a lie in these columns except to keep somebody's feelings from being hurt. I am not afraid of any of you and I'll be dad-blamed if I don't print the truth from now on, or until some of you get out of the habit of calling me a liar every time I make some unavoidable typographical error. Now watch my smoke."

COLD TRUTH

Here are some of the paragraphs out of his next issue:

"John Bennin, the laziest man in town, made a trip to Belleview, yesterday.

"Rev. Sty preached last Sunday night at the Christian Church. His sermon was punk and uninteresting except some stuff he quoted from Bob Ingersol, for which he failed to give Bob any credit. He also recited a few passages from one of William Bilbert Munsey's sermons and had the unlimited gall to palm it off as his own.

"Tom Spardin married Miss Corlie Meadows last Trades Day at the county seat. It isn't generally known but the marriage was brought about by a Remington shotgun manipulated by the bride's father. Tom concluded that marrying was the healthiest thing that he could do until other arrangements could be made.

BANKER DOESN'T PAY

"Rogan Lloyd, cashier of the state bank at Willow Grove, died last week Wednesday and was buried by the Oddfellows at Pleasant Mount cemetery. He had been taking this paper seven years and had not paid us a cent. We thought that being a banker, he would certainly pay sometime. We will sell the account for two-bits worth of groceries.

"Married—Miss Susie Scruggs and Horace Griffin, Saturday at the Methodist parsonage. The bride is a very ordinary girl who flirts with every travelling man she meets and never helped her mother three days in her life, all put together. She is anything but a beauty, resembling a gravel pit in the face, and walks like a duck. The groom is a natural born loafer and a bum. He never did a lick of work until his step daddy run him off from his home last fall. He went to the county seat and just before he starved to death he accepted a job as chambermaid in a livery stable. As soon as his ma found it out where he was she went up and got him and brought him home. He now resides at the home of his wife's father and says he has no definite plans for the future. Susie will have a hard row to hoe."—Exchange.

The Chicago Art Institute points out a new way to make money—invest in art. A Chicago waiter bought a picture, three years ago, paying for it in installments. He has been offered twice the cost price.

Waterfront Whiffs

Capt. J. M. Morrison is to be congratulated on his re-election this week as secretary at Prince Rupert of the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union. The good majorities he received at Seattle and Ketchikan and the even more substantial one he got here at Prince Rupert testified to his ability and popularity. The local branch will once more be in good hands.

In several cases, it is understood, the fishermen voters had difficulty in choosing between the three candidates who would also, had they been elected, have carried out the affairs of the Union with efficiency and satisfaction. Harry Meagher and Dave Milne are also deserving of compliment in their candidature.
