THREE DOLLARS A SHARE EXPECT

Granby stock. The improvement in Granby's physical, financial and earning position, which has come about as the result of the construction and rehabilitation campaign, raises the question as to how soon the company will resume dividends. The correct answer to this question must assume certain developments with regard to retiring the Londed debt.

OUTSTANDING BOND ISSUES Ahead of Granby stock at the end of 1925 were $1,353,400 first mortgage convertible 6s (on which the conversion privilege has expired), and $2,250,000 per cent convertible debentures, convertible any time before May 1, 1930. at $25 a share. The first 6s come due in May 1928. It is highly desirable that this latter issue be exchanged for stock as, even if the full amount is so converted, the outstanding stock of Granby will amount to only about 444,303 shares, and a saving of $175,000 annual interest charges will be made. Because of the wite spread between the call price and the selling price of the stock or bonds, the company would require only a very small amount of VANCOUVER, Nov. 1 .- John Anchan, cash on hand to take up the few bonds o was acquitted at the recent assizes refusing to convert.
