TERMINALS ARE AGAIN BEATEN

Moose Win Dominion Day Cup Football Game by 1 to Nil

There was a large crowd of spectators last night to witness the second game of Dominion Day cup ties between the Grand Terminals and the Moose. The Terminals had some leeway to make up, being defeated on Monday last by the Cold Storage but they lost again by a score of 1 to nil.

The Moose won the toss, and elected to kick uphill. Play was fast and interesting from the outset, and both goals were visited in turn. The shooting, however, left much to be desired, although Walters had bad luck with a deceiving shot which struck the post with Gawthorn well beaten. After 25 minutes' play Sammy Currie initiated a nice movement which resulted in Baker scoring for the Moose at short range. The Terminals then forced a fruitless corner, and were pressing heavily when half-time was called with the Moose leading by a goal to nil.

Play after the breather continued to be fast and even. The first dangerous shot came from Paddy O'Donnell from 20 yards out, and Bill Murray headed clear from under the bar at the expense of a corner, which was cleared easily. Terminals forced another corner soon after but De Jong skied the ball over the bar from an easy position. This error was duplicated at the other end when Baker completely missed the ball in front of an open goal. The Moose held their lead to the end.

The Line-ups

G. Krause refereed and the linesmen were George Kelsey and A. Clapperton. The teams took the field as follows:

Moose—S. Gawthorn; Skinner and W. Murray; Hunter, S. Currie and G. Mitchell; White, Russell, Baker, Hodgkinson and D. Gurvich.

Grand Terminals—S. Gurvich; G. Howe and H. Menzies; V. Menzies, O'Donnell and Stickney; Walters, De Jong, Dickens, W. Mitchell and Farquhar.

SERVICE CLUB GAME CALLED

Weather Man Acted up Mean and Crowd Got Rain Checks Yesterday

If the weather man hadn't acted up mean there would have been a wonderful exhibition of baseball yesterday afternoon at the Acropolis Hill grounds between the talented Rotarians and the brilliant Gyros but, as it happened, they only got one inning finished when it was unanimously decided to call it off and the crowd was presented with rain checks which will be honored next week if old Jupe Pluvius doesn't interfere on the occasion of the visit to town of the Ketchikan Rotarians.

Here are the fellows that will meet against next week if they get dried out following's yesterday's abortive contest:

Rotarians—Slippery Sherwood, Volatile Vance, Wily Wakefield, Marvellous Munro, Kunning Kergin, Mischeivous McLeod, Nifty Nicholls, Flashy Fisher and Bravo Bryant.

Gyros. — Crafty Cruikshank, Nonsuch Nelson, Terrible Taylor, Masterpiece McEwen, Roaring Robertson, Mysterious McNaughton, Melodramatic Mann, Gymnastic Greer and Strategic Starr.

SPORT CHAT

If the Gyros are to figure at all in the contest for Senior baseball honors this year it will just about be necessary for them to capture tonight's game from the Grand Terminals. Losing again this evening they would be at a long handicap which it would certainly be rather difficult to remove. The service club players have had a few bad breaks of luck in games already played but at that, their team would seem to need a little bolstering up and this will be effected through the arrival today of Chet Schlenkler and Oliver Haveland, a pitcher and infielder, from Vancouver. The Grand Terminals will also be reinforced with Delcourt and Sloan.

Dan Lidstone, who participated actively in local baseball for several seasons past, is now located in Victoria and has been signed on with the United Commercial Travelers' team in that city. In a recent game between the Travelers and Chemainus, Dan was called into the box in the fifth inning and managed to save the game for his side. In five innings he was nicked for four hits and breezed half a dozen opposing batsmen.

TO RAISE STATUS OF CANADA IN EMPIRE AND IN THE WORLD IS OBJECT OF PREMIER'S MOTION.

ment to submit for the approval of the Canadian parliament all treaties in the negotiation of which Canada has participated. Premier King's motion lays down the principle that before the Canadian government can signify acceptance of the treaty affecting Canada, approval of the Canadian parliament must first be obtained.

The debate in the House of Commons on the motion was important as affording opportunity for the government and parliament to make its position clear. But it was merely preliminary to the still more important discussion on inter-Empire relations scheduled for the coming Imperial Conference in October. There, the status of the Dominion in the Empire, the relations of the Dominions to each other and to Great Britain will come in for close examinatoin. The close co-operation between the British and Dominion government which existed during the war and during negotiation of the Peace of Versailles has not been fully maintained in subsequent international conferences. On the ground that the Canadian government had not participated in its negotiations Premier King declined to submit the treaty of Lausanne to the Canadian parliament for approval. The Dominion governments were not invited to participate in negotiating the treaties of Locarno. At the same time, the treaties impose no obligations on the Dominions unless the Dominions freely assume such obligations.

While Premier King's motion does not directly raise the question of Dominion status, the whole problem is likely to come under review.

TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL MEETS

Peaceful Picketing Discussed—Evasion of 8-Hour Day Act Here Alleged

At a meeting of the Trades & Labor Council held last night, President S. D. Macdonald presiding, a communication was read from the Labor Defence League with reference to the question of peaceful picketing in an endeavor to have the criminal code amended. This matter was left in the hands of the executive to deal with.

Certain reports were made at the meeting of the evasion of the Eight Hour Day Act by employers of labor in the city. It was decided to draw the attention of the government authorities at Victoria to the matter.

A general discussion took place with regard to the hours of duty of the nurses at the hospital.

The action of the president of the council with reference to the granting of fish trap licenses was duly endorsed by the meeting.

The question of holding the annual picnic and Labor Day celebrations will be taken up at the next meeting.
