THE MAN IN THE MOON
says:

I WONDER why the youth who gets married in the month of September is called the fall guy?

IT'S not really good taste to eat ice cream with spring onions at a picnic.

BISON have recently been sold by auction in the United States for $125 apiece. But who the heck wants a bison?

THESE are the days when Patties to compare the sprouting vegetables in the back garden with those displayed in the beautifully colored seed catalogue.

LOVE is like fire—it usually breaks out at night.

WHEN sister insists upon doing the washing up there's usually a nifty new lid not working in a local store window.

PART of conversation overheard by two smartly dressed local ladies. "Yes, dear, if the jabot and the yoke of the dress were homespun or a piece of shot silk inserted broadside on the inside the dress would look swell." Not far removed from the Chinese language to mere man.

WAIT until you see that Hughes Production movie at the local theatre. You'll then doubtless agree that three of the members of the local Board of Trade are not so old after all.

SHE was all dressed up, no place to go,
And chanced to meet a sheik, named Joe.
She made a hit, he fell for her.
They're saving now for that high chair.
