LEILA R. BACK FROM STIKINE

Local Power Boat Delivered Cargo of Liquor For New Store at Telegraph Creek

Power boat Leila R., Capt. Alex. Saint, returned to the Prince Rupert Boathouse wharf early this morning from the Stikine River after having delivered a cargo of liquor to Government Agent W. H. Dodd of Telegraph Creek. The shipment of liquor was taken north for the purpose of opening a liquor vendor's store in that locality. Sergeant T. Van Dyk of the provincial police, accompanied the shipment. "A large crowd was on hand to meet the boat upon arrival and everyone seemed to have a thirst," said Skipper Saint this morning. The Wrangell newspapers made meat of the arrival of the liquor in their columns, one of the quips reading: "The devil looks after his own but the Canadian government have a 'Saint' to look after theirs."

LATE JOHN ALDRICH BURIED IN SMITHERS

Native Sons of Canada Took minent Part in Obsequies on Monday

SMITHERS, B.C., June 18.—The funeral of the late John Aldrich, who died last Saturday afternoon, was held here on Monday, the services being conducted by the Rev. J. B. Gibson.

A number of the members of the local assembly of the Native Sons of Canada marched in the funeral procession and, after a few words by President L. B. Warner, they filed past the grave and, as a last token to their departed fellow-Canadian, each dropped a green maple leaf in the grave.

The deceased was born in Ontario 63 years ago, and lived in British Columbia for about 21 years, the last fifteen of which were spent prospecting and mining in the Bulkley Valey. The Mamie mine on Hudson's Bay mountain was the most outsanding of the various claims in which he was interested. This mine is now part of the Duthie Mines group and some very rich ore has been shipped from it.

The late John Aldrich has been suffering for nearly two years from diabetic gangrene in his right leg and on June 8, was operated on and the leg amputated at the thigh. He did not have sufficient reserve strength however to survive the shock, and passed away Saturday afternoon at 2.40.

FINE COMEDY-DRAMA IS WEEK-END FEATURE

Reginald Denny is Star in Fast and Laughable Entertainment Being Offered at Westholme Theatre

From title to fade-out the picture "Where Was I?" featuring Reginald Denny which is to be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight and tomorrow is a fine, fast, laughable entertainment. It is said to be one of the best comedy-dramas that has been shown here in many months.

The story deals with the roubles of a young man who is trying to find out where he was on a certain date. His memory has failed and he must prove beyond a doubt where he was. All possibilities but one are exhausted. It is the chase for this that furnishes the many thrills and laughs with which the picture is replete. In the end even this possibility goes glimmering along with the others. But everything comes out right. It wouldn't be fair to tell just how.

Pauline Garon is the girl who claims that she married Denny on a certain date while Marian Nixon is the fiancee of Denny. Both do excellent acting. Lee Moran and Chester Conklin are the ones who furnish comedy relief capably and the other members of the cast perform well.

THIRD PAYMENT MADE ON DUNWELL SHARES

Should Clear Way for Higher Market in This Stock Says Financial Post

Shareholders of Dunwell Mines, Portland Canal, have this week completed their payment on new shares. R. P. Clark & Co., Vancouver, say that this should clear the way for a higher market in these shares. In considering the value of Dunwell it must be taken into consideration that the issued capital is only 700,000 shares and that the known ore bodies are reported to consist of at least $3,000,000 in value. The building of mill and tramway should place them in a position to economically and profitably handle the ores which have been shown by the last shipment to have substantial value.—Financial Post.

Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Smith of Providence, Rhode Island, were round trip passengers on the Princess Louise this morning for Skagway.
