COUNCIL LAST NIGHT ACCEPTED BEST OFFER EVER MADE FOR PRINCE RUPERT DEBEN-TURES

The city council last night accepted for $81,000 worth of debentures the best price that has ever been offered for Prince Rupert bonds. The issue consisted of street resurfacing bonds improvements, and $53,000 local both five per cents, and an offer of Vancouver, bidding on behalf of themselves and R. P. Clark & Co., was accepted for them by the council.

D. J. Matheson, city treasurer, explained to the council that the cost of the bonds to the city would be $5,55, whereas an issue last year of 51% pen cents had cost $6. "It is a very good price, the best the city has ever been offered for its bonds," remarked Mr. Matheson in connection with the offer of Pem-

Four Important Properties at Alice Arm, Near Dolly Varden, Bonded Vancouver Capitalists of the breakfast room, flapped and tore

Word comes from Alice Arm of an important mining deal in the bonding of the Red Point, Copper Cliff, Homestake and Vanguard mining properties by J. F. Tener who is understood to be acting on behalf of General A. D. McRae, Col. Victor Spencer and other Vancouver capitalists. The four properties lie between the Dolly Varden Mine and the Kitsault Glacier and have always been considered promising copper showings. The largest bond was for $200,000 taken HON. C. A. DUNNING out on the Vanguard and it is reported that Mr. Tener is now contracting for 500 feet of tunnelling on this property. The four deals were completed last Satur- time.
