

ANNUAL HARD TIMES DANCE

Event at Exhibition Hall Last Night Proved Very Enjoyable

The annual hard times dance took place last night at the exhibition hall and proved a very enjoyable event. The floor of the hall had been specially prepared for the occasion and was in good shape. R. E. Benson was master of ceremonies and kept things moving well.

The scene was a spectacular one, many of those present having disguised themselves in old and odd costumes and changed their general appearance by means of face paint. When the time for judging came, the march was led by the pipers band consisting of J. Stewart, A. Bruce, S. Leslie, A. McDonald, J. Sturgeon, S. Currie and J. McLellan. The prizes went for the best comic lady to Mrs. Fred Seadden and best comic man to "Archie" Robinson. Mayor Newton presented the prizes.

Another interesting event during the evening was the Charles-ton dance contest, the first prize going to Sam Joy and Miss Marie McLeod. Only three couples entered but they gave good exhibitions of the latest art.

Another feature was the Scottish dances which were entered into with zest even if the dancers did not in every case show familiarity with the steps and precision of movement. For these, music was provided by a special orchestra consisting of J. Bremer, leader, J. Watt, J. McKay, Vaughan Davies and Dave Ross. The director of the Scottish dances was J. Simpson.

The boys' band led a parade through the city prior to the event and also played in the hall on arrival. Arthur's band provided the general dance music.

During the evening hot dogs and cider were sold by the Gyros, and tea was served by the Ladies of the Mooseheart Legion. The Elks and the C.N.R. also had booths.

A cake raffled by the ladies of the Legion was raffled and won by Bill Beesley.

The total proceeds of the evening amounted to $274, there being 353 who paid admissions to the hall. Ernie Unwin was cashier and John Williamson on the door.

INCREASE IN IMMIGRATION

Canadian National Announces
145 Per Cent More This Year so Far

WINNIPEG, April 21.—An increase of more than 145 per cent in immigration over the Canadian National lines into western Canada up to the end of April over the same period of last year is announced by colonization officials of the Canadian National railways. This is taking into consideration those who are due to reach Winnipeg by regular and special trains this week in addition to 3,000 passengers due to arrive at Quebec on Saturday and the majority of whom will proceed west to take up farms of their own or engage in agricultural work for others.

An even more striking comparison is that of the Canadian National's farm employment service. From the beginning of the year up to date the company has placed in farm work more new comers than during the entire season of either 1925 or 1926 and 3,000 more than had been placed up to the end of April last year.

Mrs. J. Simpson, president of the Ladies' Aid, was present and the following ladies attended to the various stalls.

Tea—Mrs. D. G. Stewart (convenor), Mrs. L. W. Kerin, Mrs. McMeekin, Mrs. McClymont, Mrs. B. R. Rice, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. W. L. Laudison, with Mrs. Rorie, cashier.

BURIED WITH MASONIC RITES THIS AFTERNOON

Services for Late John Thirkle Held in Lodge Temple and at B.C. Undertakers

The funeral of the late John Thirkle, pioneer of the city, whose death occurred in the Prince Rupert General Hospital last Sunday morning, took place this afternoon under the auspices of Tsimpsean Lodge A.F. & A.M. There were services at the Masonic Temple and at the parlor of the B.C. Undertakers with Ald. W. M. Brown, the worshipful master, in charge. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery. Pallbearers, all pioneers and members of the Masonic craft, were A. W. Edge, Ald. M. M. Stevens, Ald. Joe Greer, Dr. H. E. Tremayne, George W. Kerr and J. H. Thompson.

The late Mr. Thirkle, who was about 60 years of age and a native of Weston, Ontario, came to Prince Rupert before railway construction days and later spent several years at Anyox. About a year ago in this city he was stricken with an attack of paralysis from which he failed to recover, having been a patient in the hospital for the past twelve months. He is survived by a brother in Weston, Ontario, and an uncle resides at Ladner's Landing, B.C.

Among those sending flowers to the funeral were Tsimpsean Lodge No. 58, A.F. & A.M. and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McRae.

The others, fascinated by the danger, watched for a minute and then were horrified to see Forchynuk slip off the ice and into the water. All ran panic stricken for aid but when help arrived no trace was to be seen of the lad.

The proceedings of the concert at the Anglican Church Tuesday evening amounted to $108.55.

The badminton season was closed at Anyox last Sunday with a tournament in which twenty-four players took part and which was in progress from 10:30 in the morning until 6:30 in the evening. Forty-eight mixed double games were played and the balcony of the hall was crowded with interested spectators. Out of a possible 120, Mrs. Kirby made the highest number of points among the ladies with 117 while Mrs. Eve was second with 115. Among the men, Fred Brown and Mr. Moffatt were high with 120, the former being declared the winner in a play-off. Badminton was only established in Anyox this winter but the first season has been a very successful one.
