FAKE HOLDUP BY STUDENTS UNIVERSITY

Used Red Ink to Imitate Blood Stains in Snow and Brought Out Police Force

MUCH EXCITEMENT CAUSED

EDMONTON, Jan. 15.—Tomorrow Arthur Willis and Robert Hill, two students of the Alberta University, charged with discharging firearms within the city limits will come up for sentence. They pleaded guilty before Magistrate Primrose and were remanded.

The lads are freshmen and a fake holdup they staged at midnight Saturday night proved so realistic that the city police were called out and the student body was put into confusion. The jokers were arrested and taken to police headquarters but they were released on their promise to appear in police court when summoned. A charge of discharging firearms within the city limits was laid against them.

Two shots ringing out on a still night brought scores of students shivering from their beds and to the windows. One on the third floor of Assiniboia Hall saw a man running in the snow, a second man rising with difficulty to his feet, staggering a few steps, falling and again making an effort to pursue.

Realism Too Great
It was too realistic. The third floor man gave the alarm, turned in a hurry-up call to police headquarters and with all the other excited students in the house tumbled into his clothes and made for the campus and the spot where the supposed hold-up had taken place.

Immediately he got the call Chief of Detectives Shaw and a half-dozen plainclothes men jumped into a police car and broke all speed laws on the way to the university. When they arrived they found the snow badly trampled, as if a struggle had taken place, what appeared to be blood stains on the snow, and a pocketbook, empty and badly torn.

'Death; 'Tis Blood

They followed the trail for a short distance, noting the same stains in the snow, and then a call for more men was sent back to headquarters and Chief Shute and a number of uniformed police were stirred into action. Willis and Hill, who after the supposed hold-up had doubled back to the university and mingled with the crowd on the campus becoming alarmed over the success of their prank and fearing the consequences, confessed. The police were called off the manhunt, then well organized, and hurried back to where the practical jokers stood.

There were explanations, of course, some excitement when Inspector Shaw instructed his men to take Willis and Hill to headquarters but the cooler heads prevailed and the police and their captives returned to the north side.
Please, 'Twas Only a Joke
The two students made a clean breast of it, affirming that the joke was not intended to go further than the student body.

ELECTIONS ARE VERY EXPENSIVE

Over Three Thousand Dollars Put up by Conservative at Edmonton

EDMONTON, Jan. 15.—Statements of election campaign expenses for all three candidates in the West Edmonton riding are now in the hands of Returning Officer Joe Driscoll and the official documents show that the unsuccessful campaign of James M. Douglas, Conservative candidate, against Hon. Charles Stewart were high with a total of $3,291.38, while the Liberal candidate's expense account shows $2,883.52, and James East, the Labor candidate, managed to reach the polls by expending only $198.00.

Hon. Charles Stewart was the sole contributor to his own campaign, and his heaviest item of expenditure was for advertising, some $1,343.47 being spent for this purpose. Hire of premises was the next heavy item, amounting to $628.00, while services of paid assistants took $565.91. Travelling expenses amounted to $252.95 and the balance of the campaign fund went for postage, telegrams and stationery supplies.

From Two Sources

Mr. Douglas' campaign fund came from two sources, William A. Wells donating $1,800 and Abbott & McLaughlin, a local legal firm, contributing $1,200. Personal services of workers took the lion's share of the contributions, $1,551.00 going for this purpose and $827.00 for advertising. Personal expenses of the candidate were $330 and his agent, George D. Hunt, also expended $180.39. Hire of premises took $260.75, goods supplied $107.54 and travelling expenses $34.50.

The Labor candidate received $100.44 in contribution, and expended $198.00, the bulk of it going for hire of halls.

LABOR WOMAN SEEING CANADA

Miss Julia Varley "Generally Satisfied" and Will Advise Migration From Britain

MONTREAL, Jan. 15.—"Conditions in Canada appear to me to be quite satisfactory and I believe that a great many people now in the British Isles can be comfortably and happily settled in the Dominion," said Miss Julia Varley of Birmingham, England, a member of the executive of the Labor party, during a conference here yesterday with W. J. Black, director of colonization for the Canadian National Railways. Miss Varley had decided to see for herself what manner of people live in Canada and to study the conditions under which they work. Accordingly she set out from England on her own initiative without the aid of any organization, intending on her return to England to relate her experience through the medium of her pen and by lectures. The general tenor of her future articles and addresses is indicated by her remark yesterday that she was "generally satisfied" with conditions as she could see them in this country with the added suggestion that she would advise those who can make the break to do so and find new homes in Canada.

HIGHER PRICES PAID FOR FURS AT SALE HELD AT EDMONTON

Mink Strong and Marten Increased While Wolves Are Neglected by Buyers

EDMONTON, Jan. 15.—Raw furs totalling in value some $32,000 were disposed of at very satisfactory prices at the second sale of the season held in Edmonton. Prices secured for practically all of the 114 lots offered ranged well above those at the December sale, and most of the skins met with a good demand from the eastern and local buyers. Offerings of beaver brought about 10 per cent. above the previous sale, averaging around $19, with best top skins at about $27. Badger was in good brisk demand, with the choice skins

The Well-Managed Home

THE manager of a household is the purchasing agent for a large proportion of the family needs. In order to do a good job she must know what, when and where to buy. She must study goods and the concerns which make goods and have them to sell. She must put her home on a business basis and run it on business principles in order to make the most of the family income.

Information is the only basis for intelligent purchasing. And the right way to get the greatest amount of necessary information is to read the advertisements.

Advertisements tell you what is new and good in merchandise. They reveal improvements and inventions to make your home life easier, more comfortable and more convenient. They give you information about a thousand and one things that are useful and interesting.

Every manager of a household--every member of the household who shares the responsibility for the family's welfare--should make a habit of reading the ads.

MUCH LAKE FISH BEING SHIPPED NOW

Two Hundred Car Loads Pass Through Winnipeg Mostly For States

WINNIPEG, Jan. 15.—A heavy movement of winter fish from the inland lakes in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta is now in full swing, according to freight officials of the Canadian National Railways and since the first of December more than 200 carloads of this product have passed through Winnipeg. Seventy-five per cent of the winter fish shipped from western Canada is consumed in the United States. The bulk of the movement is destined to eastern and central United States, shipments finding their way as far south as Atlanta, Ga., and Nashville, Tenn., and as far east as New York. Prices to fishermen this season it is understood are considerably better than those of last year. The movement usually terminates in the month of March. Some of the principal shipping points are Winnipegosis, Hodgson, Steeprock and The Pas, Manitoba; Big River and Mafeking, Saskatchewan; and there are considerable shipments also from northern Saskatchewan and northern Alberta.
