Nervous Strain of Modern Life

LIFE was never lived at such high tension. There is a mania for speed, hurry and excitement. Nerve force is consumed at a tremendous rate and there is little time for recuperation.

But there is a limit to human strength. Sooner or later there comes the nervous breakdown.

There is usually plenty of warning of the approach of nervous exhaustion or collapse. You find you do not rest or sleep well. You are nervous and irritable. Little things annoy and worry you. You may have indigestion and headaches.

To get away from this condition you must have rest. You must help the nerves to get back health and vigor.

The most effective restorative of the nerves is Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Many have been restored after months or years of the most serious forms of nervous trouble. But prevention is the wiser course. It is so easy to head off trouble by using this great restorative when the warning symptoms come.

You will feel younger and look younger and your friends will notice this and compliment you. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 60 cts. a box, all dealers or The Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Ltd., Toronto, 2, Canada.

gunwales, the Billy Boy was practically rebuilt during her winter's sojourn in Vancouver. In addition to this, the old 16 h.p. Sterling light duty motor was replaced with a 16 h.p. Enterprise. The popular O.P. will again spend the season here and expects to get in some trolling before starting in the fish packing game. The trip up the coast took about two weeks, running only by day, and was made in the thick of the recent sloppy weather.

The pleasure boat Leila, belonging to Dr. William Sagers of Port Simpson, and the halibut schooner H. & R., Capt. Ted Shrubsall, were at the McLean Ways this week for cleaning and recaulking.

The big event happened at the G.T.P. wharf shed office this week. The old cat's daughter had her kittens on Thursday—five bouncing felines at that. Two of them looked like their mother and the other three didn't so they must look like their unknown father. The first thing that happened after they happened was for them to talk and everybody around the place has the meow blues now. If old Bill Goldbloom doesn't get hold of them and make genuine fox chokers out of them, there will be another supply of rat dispensers for the coastal vessels.

William Watts, of histrionic fame, has taken unto himself the responsibilities and trials of a gas boat owner. Bill has acquired the 18 foot open pleasure boat "Irene" from William Sullivan of the Knox Hotel and for a season will labor over the 3½ Grey engine with which that vessel is powered. It is to be hoped that Bill refrains from taking any of his lady friends on the water until he has become fully acquainted with said motor—otherwise, we fear, they might hear something that mightn't be good for their gentle acoustic senses."

Thor Johnson has sold his pleasure boat "Leinsh" to A. T. Eckoff who will commission the vessel in the fur trading business along the coast.

High Halibut Prices

Continued bad weather interfered with halibut landings at this port during the week. Around the beginning of the week, fares were light but those who did come in received good bids—in fact the highest that have been offered since the season opened. Toward the end of the week, however, the demand fell off and the price for first class fish dropped from the level of 20c and 22c to 15c. Second class fish remained steady pretty well all week at 8c. A number of vessels, both American and Canadian, are reported to have sold during the past week at such points as Sitka and Seward instead of coming all the way here with catches that were broken on account of the bad weather.

Somewhat under average, halibut landings for the week totalled 567,430 pounds of which 181,500 pounds was from American vessels and 85,930 pounds from Canadian. This brings the total landings for the year to date to 2,975,680 pounds—2,401,200 pounds from American boats and 574,480 pounds from Canadian.

The arrivals for the past week (Saturday to Friday inclusive) were as follows:

American—Radio, 35,000 lbs., Goney, 5,500, Virginia, 10,000, Hi Gill, 6,500; Valorous, 11,000; Columbia, 21,000; Onah, 5,000; Resolute, 30,000; Constitution, 17,000; Wilson, 13,000; Alten, 26,000; Pioneer, 32,000; Grayling, 9,000; Kanaga, 26,000; Scandia, 32,000; Panama, 15,000; Yakutat, 32,000; Trinity, 16,000; Chelsea, 24,000; Atlantic, 23,000; Republic, 30,000; Akutan, 38,000; Ivanhoe, 14,500.

Canadian—P. Dorreen, 11,500 pounds; Arrive, 900; Ternan, 7,000; Fisher, 8,000; Rose Spit, 12,000; Muirneaz, 3,500; Yule, 1,500; Atli, 6,000; Ringleader, 8,500; Arrive, 530; Cape Beale, 25,000; While Lily, 1,500.

The White Desert

A stirring story of the strong, of man pitted against the barriers of Nature. Two-fisted, red-blooded fighters in action; thundering avalanches of snow and ice; the desolation of a railroad construction camp; the tunnelling of the Rockies and a glorious romance. The beauties of the snow-land on top of the Continental Divide of Colorado brought to the screen. All should see the avalanche when the granite spires of the Death Trail crash downwards in an all-consuming rush of destruction, and the man versus woman fight on the edge of a precipice. Strong cast.
