B.C. LIBERAL EXECUTIVE TO MEET DEC. 15

GATHERING TO BE HELD IN VICTORIA INSTEAD OF IN VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, Dec. 9.—Announcement is made by Mrs. M. E. Smith, M.L.A., president of the B.C. Liberal Association, that the meeting of the executive of that body originally planned in Vancouver for December 15, the day before the formal opening of the Legislature, has been changed to Victoria. The reason, she said, was that the ministers all wished to attend the sessions of the party executive and found it impossible to be away from the capital the day before the House opening.

Great interest centres in this meeting, as under the constitution of the Liberal party there are more than 120 members of the provincial executive, representing all parts of the province.

Committees have been at work on a scheme of party organization ever since the recent Dominion election, and these reports will be considered by the executive. The political situation in the province will be thoroughly canvassed, particularly the reasons for the unfavorable outcome of the contests in the federal ridings of this province since last September and the change in the provincial situation brought about by the choice of a new Conservative leader.

The following day the Legislature will be convened for a brief and purely formal half hour, after which the House will adjourn, to begin its real work on or about January 10.

At the Safety congress held in Detroit it was reported that last year more than 22,000 lives were lost in the United States (including the lives of 6,500 children) through motor accidents, and that of these accidents not more than 5 per cent were unavoidable.

CELEBRATION HELD AFTER SHOW STAGED

Was Held Last Night in Mrs. Crew's Hall—Refreshments, Dancing and Some Speeches

After the second night's successful production of "Mrs. Temple's Telegram," members of the cast, the ushers and others who had aided with the staging of the farce, were entertained in Mrs. Crew's Hall last night. There were present officers and members of the Prince Rupert Players' Club and the Gyro Club was represented by President Stan Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lepine, Mr. and Mrs. Howard White and Bob Robertson.

Refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed to music provided by A. L. Sharpe and W. H. P. Pleming. There were brief addresses by J. S. Wilson, president of the Players' Club; A. A. Connon, director and Ralph LePine, the last mentioned expressing the Gyro Club's gratitude to the Player's Club which had put on the performance to aid the playground fund.

An English motorist, who ran down a cyclist and killed him, says an acute case of lovesickness had left his mind a blank and a jury acquitted him, its members quite evidently having had similar experiences with the girls of Devon.

MARMOT RIVER CONSOLIDATION

WAY BEING CLEARED FOR EXTENSIVE DEVELOPMENT AND DIAMOND DRILLING TO START IMMEDIATELY

STEWART, Dec. 9.—Clearing of title has opened the way for the International Metals Exploration Company of Seattle to proceed with its developments on the recently consolidated area of claims totalling 1250 acres in the rich Marmot River mining district of the Portland canal district.

Diamond drilling will be proceeded with immediately on an extensive scale.

The properties consolidated include the Fraser group, the Dwyer group, two Ryan groups, Menifeld and Watland group, Fraser Fork group, Wire Gold group, and the Crawford claim. In addition the company has a long-time option on claims aggregating 900 acres.

Most of the company's ground is in a mountain which stands between two forks of the Marmot River, tapped by a tunnel at the river level, the whole structure of rock could be worked most advantageously by stoping. Its position makes early prospecting by diamond drill comparatively easy.

Tom Campbell, engineer for the company, who has worked on the ground for some four years, believes that it may develop into one of the largest mining operations on the continent.

T. S. Waltmeyer of Seattle and Joe Green of Hyder are interested in the development.
