NATIVE SONS URGE CAUSE OF CANADIANISM MACKENZIE KING LIKELY TO BE INVITED TO CONTEST A VANCOUVER SEAT

Subordinate Party Sentiment to Cause of Canadianism in Election Say the Native Sons

VANCOUVER, July 10.—A challenge to the people of the Dominion to subordinate party sentiment to the "greater cause of Canadianism" in the approaching elections was delivered by several speakers at the banquet last night to delegates attending the Native Sons of Canada convention.

"No living person can tell what is to be the future of the British Commonwealth, but whatever happens Canada must go on," declared E. F. Jamieson, of Lethbridge, in appealing for a veritable genuine national spirit.

"We must build Canada into a composite whole," he said, and advocated compulsory naturalization of all newcomers to this country.

George E. McCrossan, of Vancouver, scored the colonial imperialists declaring that if they could only realize the aspirations of the Native Sons of Canada they would back the movement heart and soul to develop a Canadian national consciousness. "If it is not developed Canada faces disintegration," he said. "Canada could be a nation and still belong to the British Commonwealth," he added.

EX-ALDERMAN HAMILTON DOUGLAS

In spite of the knockers and people who may be down-hearted, Prince Rupert is bound to go ahead, says Mr. Douglas, who is just as confident of this city's future as he ever was. Publicity and still more of it is needed to put any place on the map and Mr. Douglas thinks a radio broadcasting station should be established here.

Mr. Douglas, who is accompanied by Mrs. Douglas, is here for several weeks recuperating from serious injuries sustained when he was knocked down by an automobile in Seattle a year ago last February. He is still compelled to walk with the assistance of canes, but he is making a rapid recovery. From the reception he is getting in town, Mr. Douglas is assured he has many more friends than the thirteen who voted for him when he contested the mayoralty many years ago.

VANCOUVER, July 10.—Opposition to the principle of taking legal appeals to the privy council in London and the suggestion that the custom should be abolished is included in a resolution passed at yesterday's session of the Native Sons of Canada, which are in convention here.

Another resolution passed at the same meeting suggested that all future appointments in the Dominion and provincial civil services should be confined to those educated in Canadian schools and colleges with special consideration for the veterans of the great war.

The first resolution stated: "It is essential to the full recognition of the equal national status of Canada that this nation should possess and maintain a final court of appeal of its own," adding: "This will really strengthen and not weaken the cordial relations between Canada and the rest of the British Empire."

Mackenzie King May Contest Vancouver Centre Constituency Against Stevens in Election

VANCOUVER, July 10.—The Vancouver Sun of last evening states that prominent Liberals are striving to have a unanimous nomination tendered to former Premier King to contest Vancouver Centre against Hon. H. H. Stevens and that if these two men have their way Mr. Mackenzie King will be given the opportunity of accepting or refusing after the meeting of the Liberal executive on Tuesday next.

It is pointed out by local Liberals that Vancouver is the logical seat for Mackenzie King to return to Parliament from and that Mr. Stevens, who was responsible for the Liberal chief's resignation, will have to fight for the seat should the premier accept the nomination.

Motherwell, minister of agriculture in the late Liberal Government, fired the first gun in the federal election campaign in Manitoba in an address before the Liberal executive and other prominent Liberals yesterday. Stevens, whose action in the House precipitated the customs probe, secured 90 per cent of his information from the King Government special investigator and that Stevens had in some manner secured access to the Duncan report before that report reached the minister of customs.

HUDSON BAY LINE IS NOT A FACTOR IN THE ELECTION

OTTAWA, July 10.—The likelihood of the Hudson Bay line being used as a factor in the present campaign is set aside by the statement that both sides pledged themselves to its construction.
