HEREVER THERE ARE FLIES USE FLY. TOX

FLIES transmit more than thirty different disease organisms" say government experts

TUBERCULOSIS, typhoid fever, small L pox, infantile paralysis—and more than a score of other diseases are carried by flies. (Read U. S. D. A. Farmers Bulletin 1408.)

Everywhere health authorities use-FLY-TOX. It is easy to use, stainless, safe, sure.

Fly-Tox does not cost much-half pints fifty cents. Nearly all grocery and drug stores sell it.

The marriage was a quiet one at the ome of the bride's parents, 2435 Second Ave. West with only members of the family and a few intimate friends pre-

The bride was attended by Miss Helen Morrison, formerly of Prince Rupert, and

The bride was prettily gowned in a ouffant frock of white taffeta with decorations of old lace, which formed part of her grandmother's wedding drees, her cap-shaped veil being held in place by strands of pearls and bunches of orange blossoms.

A beautiful Victorian bouquet of butterfly roses and lily of the valley was carried by the bride while the bridesmaid carried a sheaf of pink gladiola. and wore blue taffeta and silver lace. Following the wedding a reception was eld at "Killarney,' the happy couple eaving later for a somewhat lengthy visit to Seattle. Yellowstone Park and various points farther east.
