FIGHTING ORDER WORLD COURT

Political Battle Being Waged to Decide if Peace Shall be Supported

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The fight over the entry, with certain reservations, of the United States into the world court has already started in the Middle West where opponents of the court are out to defeat senators seeking re-election at this year's congressional elections who voted in favor of United States adherence to the court in the senate.

Barely recovered from the turmoil of the special senatorial election of last fall, Wisconsin is wheeling out its well-oiled political machinery preparatory to another four months of campaigning. Senator Borah, Republican, of Idaho, the leader of the "irreconcilables" to the world court plan, was one of the first in the fight in this state, and intends making another attack on the court when he visits Wisconsin in April. Senator James A. Reed, Democrat, of Missouri, has also been on the hustings, urging defeat of those who voted in favor of the world court, especially Senator William B. McKinley, Republican, of Illinois, who is seeking renomination. Senator McKinley's opponent for the nomination is Col. Frank I. Smith.

Senator George Wharton Pepper, of Pennsylvania, and Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, are going to reply to attacks made on the world court by Senators Borah and Reed, and incidentally to aid Senator McKinley in his fight for renomination.

Administration Leader

The terms of Senator Lenroot, Republican, of Wisconsin, and Senator McKinley will expire next year and to succeed themselves they must be candidates at this year's primaries. If successful then they must run at the regular elections. Senator Lenroot was the administration leader of the world court fight.

The situation in Wisconsin in the view of political observers does not favor Lenroot.

The coming addresses of Senator Borah, it is accepted, will be aimed at the national and international policies and the home policies of Senator Lenroot. Then for four months Wisconsin will disport itself in a factional party scrap, the La Follette and controlling wing of the Republican party opposing the administration branch.

Big Three

Arrayed against the primary candidacy of Mr. Lenroot will be

Her Heart Palpitated She Had Fainting Spells

Mrs. J. Wilson, Port George, N.S., writes:—"I suffered from palpitation of the heart and fainting spells, and, at times, I could not be left alone I was so nervous.

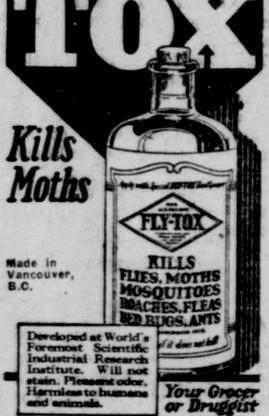

My trouble was caused from overwork and worry, having been left alone with a large family.

I had tried everything, without any relief, but I know, to-day, that I would have been a nervous wreck but for your wonderful the "Big Three." The Wisconsin oligarchy consists of Senator La Follette, or "Young Bob," Governor John J. Blaine and Herman L. Ekern, attorney general of the state. The La Follette forces have held a grudge against Senator Lenroot for more than a decade. He was once counted as the chief of the La Follette lieutenants.

The Wisconsin Socialists, who have a counting voting strength, will manage as always to squirm into the fight. The voting power of the State Democratic party has approached the zero point.

Governor Blaine is the likely and probable candidate to oppose Senator Lenroot. The "Big Three" have patched up their internal differences. For a time a split was probably. Last fall "Young Bob" by virtue of being the son of his father, the late Senator La Follette, was elected United States Senator. Governor Blaine wanted the post but decided to wait until 1926 to lead the fight against Senator Lenroot. And Attorney General Ekern, a veteran of many a political battle, will be the candidate for Governor.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY CELEBRATED WITH DANCE LAST NIGHT

Some 75 couples attended the dance which was held last night in the Boston Hall by the Sons of Ireland to celebrate St. Patrick's Day. Music was furnished by Arthur's orchestra with Miss Irene Morrison relieving at the piano during the supper hour. Pat Doherty was master of ceremonies and W. D. Vance and James Parks presided at the door. The committee in charge consisted of Jack Campbell, chairman, Stan Meeger, James Parks, H. Corbett, Thomas Turner and Thomas Annesley. The affair was in progress from 9.30 to 2.30 and refreshments were served at midnight. The Boys' Band will benefit to the extent of $35 as a result of the affair.

TEA AND SALE OF HOME COOKING YESTERDAY IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A pleasant and profitable afternoon was spent by many at a tea and sale of home cooking arranged by the Presbyterian Church ladies' aid yesterday in honor of St. Patrick. The hall was decorated with very dainty small pots of shamrock wrapped with Irish green.

Mrs. D. G. Stewart, who had charge of the event, was assisted by Mrs. Vance, Mrs. S. K. Campbell, Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs.

BAPTIST LADIES HOLD ST. PATRICK'S DAY TEA AND SALE OF COOKING

Christie with Mrs. Massie, cashier. The well laden table of the home cooking department was in charge of Mrs. Wilson Murray with Mrs. J. G. Stern assisting.

A tea and sale of home cooking was held yesterday afternoon by the ladies of the Baptist Church in their parlors and the sum of about $25 was netted. The whole affair was in charge of Mrs. Larkin, assisted by a number of ladies all of whom contributed to making the event a success. The decorations were very pretty daffodils and shamrock and Irish emblems being used with artistic effect by the girls of the church on the tables.

The home cooking was in charge of Mrs. J. Hibbard and Mrs. B. Morgan. The tea room was presided over by Mrs. J. S. McDonald assisted by Mrs. Bunn, Mrs. J. Lindsay and Mrs. Greenwood. Mrs. J. Thurber was cashier.

SPORT CHAT

Local basketball fans have in store one of the rare treats of this season in the series to be played this week-end between the Maple Leafs of Prince Rupert and the Mine of Anyox for the ladies' basketball championship of Northern B.C. The visiting girls will arrive here from the north on the Prince Rupert tomorrow morning and games will be played Friday and Saturday evenings. Returning north aboard the Cardena Sunday night, the visitors will be accompanied by the local team for a return series in the smelter town next week.

If the St. Andrew's Society wins tonight's Whist League games from the Knights of Pythias, it will be in a fair way to capture the season's honors. In any case, if it does win, the best runners-up, Elks and Moose, can do well to tie with the Scots provided the latter lose their final game next week and the runners-up themselves win all remaining games. The chances of the Scots to emerge the season's winners are thus better than two-to-one. Other games scheduled for tonight are Sons of Canada vs. Moose; Oddfellows vs. Elks; Loyal Orange Lodge vs. War Veterans.

Stewart tennis fans are early laying their plans for the season's activities. It is the intention to build a new board court at the earliest possible date in order to supplement the present cement court on the hospital grounds which is to be repaired. The Stewart Tennis Club, which is anticipating an increased membership roll this year, recently elected 1926 officers as follows: President, H. D. Rochford; vice-president, S. G. Lawrence; secretary treasurer, R. T. Crosby; executive, Mrs. H. P. Gibson, Mrs. William Janowski and J. W. Wilson.
