DECLARES REPORT OF INVESTI-GATOR FOR METHODIST EPIS-COPAL CHURCH OF U.S.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.-The system of government control of liquor in Canada is a failure, the board of temperance, prohibition and public morals of the Methodist Episcopal church declares in a long statement reviewing conditions in the dominion since the end of prohibition in various provin-

The board explained that its conclusions were based upon a personal survey by Ernest A. Grant, its assistant research secretary, and upon government documents, newspaper articles and other material. It added that "only pall-bearers were: R. Cory, J. Tyler, facts and figures of undoubted authenticity are used."

SUMMARY OF FINDINGS
