SMITHERS REBEKAHS ENTERTAIN AT CARDS

SMITHERS, March 13. — The regular monthly Rebekah whist and bridge drive was held in their lodge rooms on Wednesday evening and a most enjoyable evening spent by those in attendance at the games.

When play was finished it was found that the top scores at whist had been made by Mrs. K. Birnie and Mr. Pappas first, and Mrs. K. Bates and R. Elliott second. At bridge the top scorers were Mrs. G. Wall and E. Gunderson first, and Mrs. H. G. Windt and H. Kelley, all of whom rereceived nice prizes for their efforts. Refreshments were served before the players dispersed.

THE MAN IN THE MOON

says:

VERY soon it will be the season for spring fever. I wonder how some of my lazy friends will know when it comes.

THE way to learn to whistle is to make a hole in your face and then push.

COLD cream may be all right for some people to keep away wrinkles, but give me a little of the milk of human kindness.

I USED to know a man who was thinner than a modern girl's hose. Can you beat it?

ONCE upon a time a young lady went to church and when the parson looked at her and told of the evils of a misspent life she felt guiltier than a poker chip in a missionary box.

I OFTEN get into scrapes, but think what it must be to be a rear fender.

I KNOW a man who looks as mean as a girl in a mail order bathing suit.

THEY are asking for an asylum for the insane people of Alaska. I don't know what would best be done for the crazy people here.

A NEW match produces more heat than an old flame.

IF a woman keeps on giving you a piece of her mind is it any wonder she has very little left.

THIS has been a happy day. I have not had to swear more than half a dozen times.

WHENEVER I feel like swearing
And my mouth shapes ready for "Damn"
I think of poor little Mary
And her sweet and blissful lamb.
What comfort that lamb is to me
Is more than I care to tell,
For just think of following Mary
It certainly must have been hell.

ISAAC LEAR DROWNED AT SEA FROM OWN FISHING BOAT THE CAPE SPEAR

brother, Benjamin Lear of Vancouver; two sisters, Mrs. Laura Mugford of Port de Grave, Newfoundland, and Mrs. Lucy Snow of Bay Roberts, Newfoundland, and two half-brothers, John and Edward Paton of Glace Bay, Nova Scotia.

Born in Newfoundland

The late Capt. Lear was 36 years of age and was born at Port de Grave, Conception Bay, Newfoundland. He left Newfoundland in 1910 and, after spending a short time in Calgary, came the same year to Vancouver. In 1914 he entered the halibut fishing business in Prince Rupert and had resided here continuously since then. He was a member of the Loyal Orange Lodge.

The fatal trip was the second of the Cape Spear this season. She sold 7,000 pounds of halibut on the Exchange this morning as a result of five days' fishing. The vessel is one of the newer of the Canadian fleet, having been built three years ago.

PRINCE RUPERT BEAT SIMPSON

Locals Had the Best of it in Basketball Encounter Last Evening

The locals proved too strong for the Port Simpson visitors in the basketball game last night at the Exhibition Hall and Prince Rupert came off on the long end of a 34 to 14 score. Port Simpson showed some clever passing and combination ability but the home team did more effective shooting. The match was perhaps more closely contested than the score would indicate. At half time the score was 11 to 5 in Prince Rupert's favor. Lee Dell refereed the first half and Eddie Mann, the second.

The line-ups and scoring were as follows:

Port Simpson—R. Sankey, 5; P. Alexcee; R. Matheson, 2; W. Johnson, 1; D. Musgrave, C. Ross, G. White, 2; G. Webster, 1.

Prince Rupert—P. Howard, 5; W. Mitchell, 10; D. Balfour, 13; V. Menzies, 1; E. Smith, W. Lambie, 2; G. Skinner, 2; G. Mitchell.

The evening's program of games opened with an exhibition match between the Maple Leafs' and High School ladies' teams. W. Mitchell was the referee. The Maple Leafs won.

There was a good crowd of about three hundred people on hand to witness the games and the Exhibition Board will benefit to the extent of about $75.

The Port Simpson team is returning home by gas boat today.

SURPRISE IS SPRUNG IN BILLIARD SERIES

Fred Pyle Eliminated Col. McMordie by Score of 500 to 494 Last Evening

The victory of Fred Pyle over Col. S. P. McMordie by a score of 500 to 494 in the semi-final last night of the city billiard championship series came as a general surprise. Pyle played a safety game and, at the same time, had the break of the luck while McMordie was not playing in usual form. Playing a steady game, Pyle got away to a good start at the first and was leading his opponent by 100 or more points up to the 400 mark. Col. McMordie then commenced to pull up considerably but could not make the 500 first though Pyle made a slow finish.

Pyle's high break was 21 and McMordie's 32. The averages per innings were 4.175 and 4.150 respectively and the time of the tournament was 2 hours and 56 minutes.

J. Andrews was referee; G. S. Russell, scorer; W. E. Williscroft, marker; and Oscar Young was at the door.

The second semi-final will be this evening between George McIlmoyle and George Waugh.
