URGED TO BUY B.C. PRODUCTS

Manufacturing Plants of Province Employ 40,000 Workers and Output Large Sum

Five hundred and twenty different kinds of products are turned out by the factories of British Columbia today. Drawing raw materials from the mines, forests, waters and farms of Western Canada, our manufacturing plants, employing about 40,000 workers, are making quality products which were valued at over $190,000,000 last year.

Foodstuffs, machinery, furniture, clothing, beverages, metal goods, household requirements, drugs, chemicals, fish products and building materials are among the products of this Province and yet millions of dollars worth of similar goods are imported from foreign lands.

The B.C. Products Bureau of the Vancouver Board of Trade, which has been carrying on a campaign continuously since January 1921, with the idea of driving home to the public the great advantages of buying local products, has set aside the week May 10-17 as British Columbia Shopping Week with the idea of demonstrating the variety and quality of these products to British Columbia citizens.

Newspapers, wholesalers, retailers, hotels, restaurants, are all co-operating and it is expected that considerable impetus will be given to local industries through this effort.

ANOTHER QUEER FISH IS BROUGHT TO PORT

Member of Prowfish Family Taken off Sitka by "Brothers"

Another strange fish has been brought to Prince Rupert by halibut fisherman. This time Captain S. Johansen of the "Brothers," Petersburgh, has brought in a member of the Prowfish family which he caught off Sitka Sound in about sixty fathoms of water.

The specimen, which is 2 ft. 8 ins. long and 17 ins. in girth, is known scientifically as "Zaprora silenus" and belongs to the family called "Zaproridae." It is characterized by a short head with the nape not elevated and a forehead which is broad and abruptly convex in profile. The jaws and teeth are very heavily built.

The pectorals or front pair of fins are fairly long and rounded and are placed close behind the gills, midway between the back and belly. There are no ventral or hind pair of paired fins. The dorsal or back-fin, which has resulted in the name of "prowfish," is long and unnotched running from above the gill-openings to within a short distance of the tail. It is formed of moderately flexible rays and is a couple of inches in height.

The specimen has been turned over to the Fisheries Experimental Station where it will be preserved.

EDUCATIONAL AND HISTORICAL TOUR

The Canadian National Railways will operate a forty-three day Personally Conducted Educational Tour to Europe this Summer, sailing via the S.S. "Athenia" from Montreal, July 9, direct to Glasgow. Proceeding from there, the party will visit different points of interest in Scotland, England, Holland Belgium, Switzerland and France, also an opportunity to visit the Battlefields. Returning to England, will sail from Liverpool on S.S. "Aurania" August 13 for Montreal. Considering the number of points visited, the accommodation provided, and entertainment offered, this is one of the lowest priced Tours ever operated to Europe.

MILLIONAIRE'S DERBY

Value of Horses Nominated This Year is Set at $20,000,000 and Last Year's Winnings a Million

LOUISVILLE, May 10.— Fifty-second renewal of the Kentucky Derby, to be run here May 15, might be termed the "millionaire's derby."

The approximate value of the 164 horses nominated is $20,000,000 and their winnings last year fell short of a million dollars by only a few thousand.

Never in the history of the noted event, have so many persons high in business and finance entered their favorites. Harry Payne Whitney and Col. E. R. Bradley hold the honor of the greatest number of nominations, each having eight.

The race promises to pay a greater price this year than in previous years. Morvich captured $53,775 in 1922, but experts here believe this year's purse will outdistance the one in that year.

WESTVIEW PLAY GROUND OPENED

Gyro Club Turns Over Its Equipment to Mayor Newton For City of Prince Rupert

With some two or three hundred kiddies in attendance as well as a number of parents from the west end of town, ceremonies in connection with the opening of the Gyro Club's second playground in Prince Rupert at Westview Park took place on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The presence of the Boys' Band was one of the outstanding features of the occasion. Led by bandmaster Wilson, this creditable aggregation of youngsters was assembled at the corner of Third Avenue and Fulton Street and marched through a heavy rain shower but, as they arrived at Westview, the sun burst through again and blessed the afternoon's ceremonies with its beautiful rays. The band played a generous program of selections which was much appreciated by the crowd.

Stan Taylor, president of the Gyro Club, presided over the proceedings at the Park and called upon Police Magistrate McLymont to briefly address the youngsters. Mr. McClymont congratulated the Gyro Club on its program of playground work and gave the boys and girls some good advice as to their conduct stressing the necessity of their putting to good and proper use the facilities with which they were being provided.

President Taylor then presented to Mayor Newton the document deeding over from the Gyro Club to the City of Prince Rupert the equipment of the Westview Playground. The mayor also voiced his congratulations to the Gyro Club and reiterated the advice that had already been given to the boys and girls. As he formally declared the park open, the flag was unfurled by President Taylor.

Ice cream was then served to the youngsters and play started in full swing on the new ground Assisting President Taylor in the afternoon's arrangement were members of the Gyro playground committee under Chairman Leo Waugh and other members of the club.

The Westview playground is the second one in the city that that been put in shape and equipped through the efforts of the Gyro Club. The first one at McClymont Park has been in operation for the past two years and the third at Seal Cove is now ready to receive the equipment. It will probably be opened about July 1.

SPORT CHAT

That "insidious" pastime, Golf, seems to be a sort of melting pot for all other sports, as champion boxers, ball players, swimmers, racing drivers, tennis players, and what not all try to "double in brass" by successfully playing the Scotch game as well as their own. The number of men and women who play both tennis and golf is exceptionally large, and success in both of these two sports is more common than in any of the others. In any discussion of tennis and golf combined, the name of Mary Browne immediately comes to mind. The California girl's feat of reaching the final round of the American national women's golf tournament and the semi-final round of the national women's tournament only six weeks apart has no parallel in sport history.

It is easier to name famous tennis players who have turned to golf than vice versa. That is probably because, as people grow older they naturally seek less active games. The famous Maurice McLoughlin is gradually developing himself into an excellent golfer. He shot a 68 on a par 72 course on the coast last year. Bill Tilden has tried his hand at golf without great success, and Suzanne Lenglen surprised the public a couple of years ago, by some good playing in a golf tournament for tennis players at St. Germain. Probably the best tennis player-golfer of all is Norman Brookes, the veteran Australian Davis Cup star. Brookes, a southpaw on the courts, is one of the best left-handed golfers to be found anywhere in the world.

As for golfers turned net stars Cyril Tolley, former English amateur golf champion, is the most famous. He announced last year that he was going to abandon the links for the courts, in hopes of winning a Davis Cup match for England. He entered his first tennis tournament under the nom de guerre of "A Birdie," which really should have disqualified him from future competition. It was his decision as a linesman in the famous Wills-Lengien match at Cannes that so rankled the American player. Miss Joyce Wethered, the great British woman's golf champion, also expressed her intention last year of withdrawing from golf to enter tennis tournaments.
