HOCKEY NOSING OUT BOXING

New York May Look on Fistic Encounters as Secondary Sport in Future

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The possibility of professional hockey becoming the major winter attraction at Madison Square Garden and professional boxing relegated to the level of a subordinate activity next winter, is being discussed here.

At the recent meeting of the National Hockey League in Montreal the Garden exercised its option on a second franchise for this city, and will begin soon to organize a second sextette. It will be known as the Brooklyn Club, but it will make its home in the Garden along with the New York Americans.

Discussing the rivalry between hockey and boxing for public favor, the Telegram says: "If hockey turns out to be the success Colonel Hammond thinks it is going to be here boxing may become a subordinate activity in the Garden. It may be that only the biggest attractions will be handled, and then only once a month. The increasing financial demands of all the fighters who are worth while, and the increasing unwillingness of champions to do any fighting at all, have created a situation which is inimical to the best interests of boxing."

"It is an axiom in sport that in all professional activities those engaged in them sooner or later will kill the goose that lays the golden eggs. This has happened in boxing time and again. The situation in the ring game now points to a new threat against the well known goose's life."

"If hockey can draw an average of 10,000 at an average rate of 82 it will make more money through the winter than boxing. Incidentally, with two teams in New York, one in Boston and one in Pittsburgh, the United States will have four representatives in the League, and will match Canada in that respect."

WOMEN TAKE PART IN COMPETITIVE SPORTS

Half Million to be Spent by University of Toronto on Athletic Building for Girl Students

TORONTO, Feb. 15.—The Sporting Editor of The Globe writes: Prevalence of women's basketball, hockey, speed skating, swimming, track and field athletics, baseball, etc., competition of Canadian women's teams in track meets in England, the United States and next summer in Belgium, are quite enough to establish women's competitive sport. The progress of women's sports on an organized basis, as is seen in the Ontario Hockey Association for the fair sex, the women's basketball association and last, but not least, the Women's Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada, national governing body, are significant enough.

Recognition in another and even more significant quarter was seen this week when the University of Toronto announced that $500,000 will be expended on a building for women's athletics. The new building will be erected on Devonshire Place. The appropriation of such a sum as half a million dollars for the purpose of gymnasium, swimming pool, sports executive offices, etc., indicates that the Blue and White attach a great deal of importance to sport for women,

BABE RUTH IS NOT YET GONE

Says They Tried to Bury Him Last Season but is Going to Fool 'em

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Babe Ruth, by his own admission more nymph-like than at any time in the past seven years of his turbulent career, not only looks forward to a smashing comeback this year in his familiar clouting role, but also is confident that he has many more years of active major league campaigning ahead of him.

"They tried to bury me last season," Ruth said today, "but I'm going to fool 'em. I've taken on a new lease of life by taking it off the waist line. "How much longer do I expect to stick in the big show? Six or seven years, anyway. I'll be going strong when I'm forty and I celebrated my thirty-second birthday February 7."

The Babe's appearance these days adds conviction to his words. He is ruddy and trim looking. He has lost all his excess weight. At 247, his present figure, he weighs less than at any time since 1918.

Ben Self has the big time fever again and is already planning a trip East towards the end of the coming summer in the course of which he will see the Dempsey-Willis tangle which is more or less indefinitely scheduled to take place on Labor Day and the 1926 World Series. Ben's present plan is to go to Stratford, Ontario, and there get himself a steam car to make the rest of the journey. If present plans mature he will also visit Florida and California crossing the United States in the car. Incidentally he will probably see "Dad" Self who is now in the Corn Belt.

A Few Doses of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup May Stop That Cough. Mr. Frank D. Comeau, West Bathurst, N.B., writes: "I had a very bad cold and cough that settled on my lungs, and I thought that I would never get rid of it. One day a friend spoke to me about your wonderful remedy, so I sent and got a bottle of it, and after the first dose I took I got relief, and by the time I had finished the bottle I was completely relieved of all my trouble." "Dr. Wood's" is put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
