EIGHT STATES OF UNION BEING GIVEN OPPORTUNITY THIS YEAR TO VOTE ON IT

CHICAGO, Oct. 1 .- Voters in eight at the November election, will have an opportunity to pass upon prohibition. The states are California, Illinois, Missouri, Mantana Nevada, New York and Wiconsin.

In New York, Illinois and Wisconsin, the referendum is on the question of asking congress to amend the Volstead in the bringing up of the youth of today, T. E. Rinde, pastor of the English Lutheran Church, gave an interesting and instructive address to the members house, Ninth Avenue, Section 8, $150. of the Rotary Club at their luncheon yesterday afternoon.

REV. T. E. RINDE GIVES INTEREST. ING ADDRESS TO ROTARY CLUB ON YOUTH OF TODAY

Mr. Rinde expressed the opinion that the manner in which the problem of youth was being solved today was not any credit to the country. He quoted very largely from United States authorities to show that many of the criminals passing through the courts were youths and he further quoted from United States judges to find a cause and cure for the condition. The chief of causes he set as being lack of religious training, lack of home discipline, liquor, dissipation of parents, unsupervised amusements and laziness which led to indulgences.

Mr. Rinde particularly emphasized the value of religious training as one of the great safeguards. He deplored the lack of religious instruction in many of the Prince Rupert homes and stated that less than half the children of Sunday School age attended Sunday School. The result was that they grew up without such instruction. If the parents shirked the work of training the children, it often was left for the courts to deal with them. Fathers were the ones who failed mostly, leaving the work to the mother. In some homes he admitted there was obedience but it was obedience of mother to the daugh-

CANADA AN EXAMPLE AMERICANS LAUDING

(Spokane Sportsman Review) At Winnipeg three highwaymen held up a citizen and robbed him of $1.90. In some parts of the United States a crime of that magnitude would have been looked upon as a minor escapade, calling for a jail sentence of a few days, or a paternal rebuke from the judge. But that sort of leniency is not awarded to highwaymen in Canada. One of the convicted men was sentenced to 31/2 years imprisonment and 20 lashes, 10 lashes at once and 10 when his term expires; another to three years and 20 lashes, and the youngest of the trio was given three years and a paddling.

If the American people could bring themselves to adoptice of that treatment, they could see a slump in crime.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 1. - Capt. Paul A Curtis, big game editor of Field and Stream, New York, and an authority on game hunting, passed through Winnipeg eastbound over the Canadian National lines this morning on his return from a 45 day hunting trip in the Smoky and Porcupine River district northwest of Entrance Alberta. The bag obtained by Capt. Curtis and his party which included Loring Gale and Sandford Knapp, also of New York, was one of the largest to be secured in the districts in recent years. The prize trophy was a Rocky Mountain goat with a pair of horns ten and three quarter inche long. This is supposed to be a record head.
