Judge Young, of Prince Rupert, and Mrs. Young are visitors in the city. They are guests at the Glenshiel Hotel. Judge Young, who is county court judge for the county of Atlin, has been granted leave of absence owing to the fact that he has not been in the best of health for a time. In the district over which he exercises jurisdiction it is impossible for him to take his holidays at the usual time for court vacation, the middle of the summer. That is the season when the court business is most active in the northern part of his territory. He is therefore obliged to get his vacation in the winter months, if he is to have one at all.—Victoria Colonist. 22
