TONIGHT your little ones will rest in the security of a mother's love and a father's care.

To the mother, life is a devoted, unselfish service. To you it is a grave responsibility. Upon your protection depends the happy childish prattle—the smiles on little faces the trusting repose of tiny, play-tired bodies.

What if your protection were removed?

Life Insurance, alone of all the institutions which serve mankind, gives you the assurance of protection for your wife and children—the perpetuation of your love and care, even after you are gone. It will guard your home, protect your wife, educate your children and provide for your own old age.

Why not talk it over with a Life Insurance representative today?
