MELVILLE, Sask., Aug. 25 .-Premier Meighen yesterday afternoon reviewed his pledge to complete the Hudson Bay Railway on the grounds that "we owe it to the settlers interested in that portion of our country. Having spent militions of donars on it, we have to go on and finish it and give it a fair test," he added: "however, if we find it is going to take a collosal sum in the neighborhood of fifty million dollars, this country in its present shape just has to be patient because this country cannot afford that much money at the present time."
