MAYOR OF VANCOUVER MAKES A PROTEST

Business of All to Work Together for New Europe Says Austen Chamberlain

LONDON, May 20.—Sir Austen Chamberlain, foreign secretary, paid a tribute to France at a luncheon of the United Associations in the Hotel Victoria here. In proposing the toast of France, he said that it was the business of all to work together, to affirm the new foundations of a new Europe, and by our cordiality, by our confidence, by our assurance one in the other to make possible reconciliation and pacification. In diplomacy as in the House of Commons they often found it difficult to see in due proportion the events of the current hour. Just at present they had all been somewhat perturbed and agitated by diplomatic negotiations which had been going on in other quarters. No doubt new treaties required to be watched; no doubt the world had become so narrow that we could no longer say that what happened here or there could be no concern of ours. But we should make a great mistake if we regarded those negotiations with any jealousy or suspicion.

NOT TAKING INDIAN MINE

Mr. Pitt Announces That Prices Are Too Low at Present to Warrant Working it

Mr. Pitt, manager of the smelter, who was here yesterday on his way north to Stewart, had a conference with L. W. Moore in regard to the proposal to take over and operate Indian Mine. It was decided to take it over at present as low prices of lead, silver and tin do not warrant the company taking over new properties just now. The Indian ores are low grade and do not make for profitable operation on a low market.

GOOD GROUND AGAINST BEAR

Prince Rupert Man Started to Run but was Restrained by His Companion

The other day a local man was visiting at Lakelse Lake and company with Bruce Johnson was out in the woods when he saw a bear coming in their direction. The Prince Rupert man started to run, but the other did him back and finally they got their ground and gestured and shouted, daring brain come on. The bear, that was apparently mother with cubs in the neighborhood, reluctantly retreated into two stalwart men were in opposing her. If she had succeeded it is not quite certain that the duo would have done protect themselves.

SCHOOL PUPILS IN A DEBATE

Enjoyable and Instructive Event Under Auspices of Parent Teachers' Association

The final meeting for the spring term of the Parent-Teacher Association was held in the Booth School last night. The chair was occupied by Mrs. Austin and there was a good attendance.

Three new members were added to the membership committee, Miss Stewart, Mrs. Moxley and Mrs. Pyle. Their duties will be to welcome new members and see that they become acquainted.

Miss May Ness delighted the audience with a piano solo and later Miss Annie Gilchrist gave a charming exhibition of fancy dancing.

The feature of the evening was a debate: "Resolved the movie show is more productive of harm than good," by four High School students.

John Comadino was chairman for the debate. The speakers for the affirmative were Bruce Stephens and Miss Francis Tremayne and for the negative Jimmie Bryant and Miss Dorothy Hardie.

It was very evident that all the debaters had devoted much time to the preparation of their debate. The subject was well covered, arguments well thought out, forcibly presented and points driven home in a convincing way. All the debaters did well. In the rebuttal Bruce Stephens was especially effective.

The decision which was left to the audience was given in favor of the affirmative.

Altogether the debate was a most enjoyable event and maintained the keen interest of the audience all the way through.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

VANCOUVER, May 20.—Flagrant discrimination against Vancouver by the Ottawa government is charged by Mayor Taylor in entering on behalf on the Western Canada Unity and Development League a protest to Ottawa against the renting of the Prince Rupert elevator to the wheat pool for one hundred dollars per annum for two years.

In the message to Premier Mackenzie King, the mayor declares strenuous disapproval of any action "that plays into the hands of the wheat pool" to take grain shipments away from Vancouver.

Dealing with the Prince Rupert elevator, the mayor asserts that the elevator "cost a million and a half dollars with interest charges amounting to $110,000 paid by the people and that the lease means the bonusing of the pool to the extent of that amount. Surely the Alberta pool is not in such a critical position that Government assistance and protection is required any more than would be required by private grain companies."

In the same message the mayor protests against the leasing of the elevator at Vancouver to private interests.

KETCHIKAN AND PRINCE RUPERT

Writer in First City News Says Open Market Here Means Prosperity in Alaskan Port

The First City News, a little weekly paper supporting the candidacy of Dan Sutherland as delegate for Alaska in the House of Representatives has this to say about the relationships between Prince Rupert and Ketchikan:

After all is said and done everybody knows that Dan Sutherland will be re-elected to Congress next November. He will be our next delegate to Congress. Johnny Walker, Troy and Ed. G. Morrissey and certain of the Commercial Clubs of Juneau and Ketchikan may rave, but even they know that we speak the truth.

A leading business man spoke to us wishing that real co-operation could be had between the business interests of Ketchikan and Mr. Sutherland. The answer is that this co-operation can be easily had.

"But," we said, "the Ketchikan Commercial Club must first get right on business policies. For instance, those few who assume to speak for the Commercial Club are trying to close Prince Rupert as a market for our fish. The correct principle is, simply this, that if they succeed, they will hurt Ketchikan beyond cure. An open port at Prince Rupert means a prosperous Ketchikan simply because it makes fishing profitable through its competitive market."

"The second necessary change" we continued, "is this, each year sees a further consolidation of the interests who catch the fish until today more than 50 per cent of the fish of Alaska are caught by some 30 concerns. This is all the more deplorable because nearly all of these interests are non-resident."

"Can the business men not see that the abolishment of the fish trap means a greater fishing population, more money in circulation, more money for merchants, boatbuilders, outfitters, and for the city of Ketchikan in particular and others as well?"

NEW REGULATIONS FOR TOURISTS IN CANADA

Visitors to British Columbia Bringing Autos Have Official Stickers on Them

VICTORIA, May 20.—New regulations governing the admission of tourist automobiles to British Columbia will go into effect within a few days, it is announced at the Parliament Buildings. Under the new code of rules all foreign cars entering the province must carry official stickers on their windshields. These will convey details of the car's ownership and place of registration. All tourists on entering the province with their cars will be given these stickers.

With foreign cars thus distinguished it will be an easy matter for police to enforce the registration of foreign cars. In the past it has been difficult to make all visiting motorists register and in a few days the police have fined visitors. The government has no desire to interfere with tourists' pleasure and convenience by such drastic methods and proposes to use stickers to make action of this sort unnecessary.

POOL AFTER ELEVATORS

Proposal to Lease One or More at Vancouver to Offset Prince Rupert Move

OTTAWA, May 20.—The leasing of the Prince Rupert elevator to the Wheat Pool has caused a little flurry in connection with Vancouver interests which see as a result a good deal of business going to the northern port which it was expected Vancouver would have. To offset this, a move is being made to have the pools take over one or more of the Vancouver elevators at present controlled by the Vancouver Harbor Board. This, it is suggested, would offset the Prince Rupert move and put Vancouver on the same basis in regard to the pools as is Prince Rupert.

There is a good deal of opposition developing to the proposed transfer as it is thought it would be placing too much power in the hands of the pool, giving them practically a monopoly of the grain handling business which at present they do not possess.

PROTEST MADE AT SCHEDULE

Service From This Port to Islands Subject of Strong Representations to Keeley

A meeting of the council of the board of trade met yesterday afternoon in the city hall and discussed the recently published schedule of the steamship service between this city and Queen Charlotte Islands. Following the meeting a telegram was sent to B. C. Keeley, superintendent of the B.C. coast service, emphatically protesting against the service as being of little use to local merchants. It gave no opportunity for out of town people to bank here or for local merchants to fill orders.

It is understood that the matter will be followed up as local merchants are wholly opposed to the schedule.
