

A Good Cook Fails

A young matron whose name we shall not mention spent the week-end with friends. This lady has a reputation for baking and was asked to bake a cake—and she did. No Pacific Milk was available and she herself thought it would make little difference—but the cake was a failure—worse than that, she says.

MOOSE SMOKER GREAT AFFAIR

Two Hundred Members of Lodge and Their Friends Enjoyed Festivities Last Evening

The first annual banquet and smoking concert held in the Metropolitan Hall last night by the Loyal Order of Moose was a marked success, reflecting great success on the organization as a whole. Some 200 members of the lodge and their guests sat down to a sumptuous spread at 8.30, two sittings being necessary to accommodate all those present.

At the conclusion of the banquet, the gathering repaired to the outer hall where pipes, tobacco, cigars and cigarettes were distributed, every one being made to feel at home. A program of songs, recitations and instrumental selections followed, being interspersed with appropriate addresses by Past Dictator Gillis Royer, Mayor Newton, Past Dictator Fred Scadden, Past Dictator B. M. Simpson, Dr. B. E. Tremayne, G. W. Nickerson, Ald. M. M. Stephens and Principal J. C. Brady. B. J. Bacon acted as chairman.

The program comprised the following numbers:

Selection by mouth organ band—Joe Slagard, Louis and Harry Astori, Sam Haudenschild and Bert Hoskins.

Selections by orchestra—Messrs. Hammon, Webb and Ryan.

Song—Joe Slagard.

Cornet solo—W. Rance.

Recitation—R. Phillips.

Band—"My Wild Irish Rose."

Violin solo—F. Cameron.

Euphonium solo—F. Derry.

Mouth organ solo—H. Astoria.

Recitation—A. Macdonald.

March by Orchestra.

Song—Bob James.

Monologue—Fred Scadden.

Instrumental duet—J. Gawthorne and Dave Eastman.

Orchestra—"Marching Through Georgia."

The committee responsible for the success of the evening comprised B. J. Bacon, chairman; A. Ohnessarg, H. Jackson, P. Cameron, Sam Haudenschild and H. Squarcluck, T. Elliott, G. Royer, F. Scadden and S. Antos. W. Vaughan Davies acted as accompanist.

FINE CONCERT AT GYMNASIUM

New Building Being Utilized Already and Large Crowd Present

Over 250 people crowded into the new United Church gymnasium Hall at Seal Cove last evening for the first entertainment to be given there following the official opening on Sunday, and a most enjoyable time was spent. Dr. W. T. Kergin presided and a short address was also given by Mayor Newton. The elocutionists for the evening were Mrs. A. Mackie and J. C. Brady.

Among the musical numbers was a stringed trio by Professor Pryce, A. J. Lancaster, and David Bennett; a mandolin trio by A. Martini and the Budenich brothers; an instrumental duet by Jimmie and Wisner Bryant; and a violin solo by David Bennett.

Vocal solos were well rendered by Mrs. William Millar, Mrs. J. P. McMillan, A. Clapperton, and Bruce Stevens.

An exhibition of sea service cutlas drill by chief petty officer Kinch proved very attractive to the young folk.

A sketch by four high school boys, Albert Anderson, W. Patmore, Bob Irvine, and Bruce Stevens was well performed.

The accompanists for the evening were Mrs. Ralph Walker and Mrs. Elkins.

Tonight the boys will have the gym and tomorrow night the girls will use it.

RUN OF HERRING ON VANCOUVER ISLAND IS PHENOMENAL THIS YEAR

VANCOUVER, Feb. 2.—Due to phenomenal runs on the east coast of Vancouver Island from Salt Spring Island to Nanooose Bay the herring catch for the province is running far above average reports today said. The catch up to January 23 was more than half again the figures up to January 24, 1925.

Last year's catch was 30,353 tons. To January 23 of this year the catch was 46,749 tons. The latter figure is made up of 30,428 tons from the east shore and 15,291 from the west coast of the island.

MAKING COURSES FOR GOLF IN SMALL CITIES

Example of Swift Current is Being Followed in United States

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 2.—Golfers of the United States are working night and day to provide facilities for the tremendous increase of players of all ages, and the example of Swift Current, Sask., in building an eighteen-hole course is cited as an example of how the dearth of golf links in small towns can be overcome.

The Associated Press in a recent dispatch has this to say about Swift Current golf course: "Three citizens, who got a taste of golf while abroad as soldiers, obtained permission to use a piece of prairie, invested five dollars in shovels and picks, donned overalls and began to dig out a links for themselves. They made three holes and, induced some fellow townsmen to try their luck over the rugged fairways from the earthen tees to the sanded greens.

"No western town was ever greater than that of the Swift Current Golf Club, for within a few weeks there were a hundred members, all willing workers. They kept delving in the virgin prairie until eighteen holes were completed, and then they chipped in and bought the land, some 400 acres. Using a farm house for a club house they began to improve the links with bunkers, a watering plant and a rustic gateway."

Municipal links and fee courses have partly made a place for the golfer of modest means but the demand has not been half supplied. Another aim is to get the price of golfing paraphernalia down to bargain prices.

There is still a dearth of golf links in small towns, but these places are rapidly getting courses. Golf is particularly cheap in several cities, because land can be obtained for a small sum, transportation is without cost and there is no social side to require large funds.

U.S. INVADED BY CANADIANS

Honors in Several Lines of Sport go to Athletes from this Country

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—The invasion of the United States by Canadian athletes continues at a record pace. The dominion stepped off on her right foot at the opening of the winter sport season by introducing professional hockey to New York and Pittsburgh (Boston was a member of the National Hockey League in 1924-25; next came an army of puck chasers from the senior intercollegiate league for a series of games with the leading eastern universities of the United States; Charles Gorman, the Saint John, N.B., speed skater, has made his 1926 debut in quest of more laurels; Canadian students have given a favorable account of themselves in skiing and snow shoe meets; and now comes word of an invasion of track men from Canada who intend to compete in the indoor meets in this district in the near future, against the top-notchers of the United States.

Gilbert Holland, a big colored boy who has been wearing the colors of the Y.M.C.A. at Hamilton, Ontario, checked into New York the other day and announced his intention of competing in many of the Metropolitan games. Holland is a six-footer, built along the lines of Bob Simpson, the University of Missouri athlete who was the first man to beat 45 seconds for the 120-yard high hurdles. The Hamilton "limber-topper" too, has been credited with the time of 14 1/5 for that event and track followers are looking for the keenest of skill and speed from the Canuck when he runs next month. The colored flyer has already filed entries for the Wileo Athletic Association and the Crescent Athletic Club track games to be held in this city and he will then have an opportunity to compete against such well known hurdlers as Carl Christensen, Herbie Myers and Ray Wolf.

The Dominion will also have a representative at the Millrose A.C. meet in this city. Allen T. Christie, the University of Toronto middle-distance star is to come down for those famous games. Christie is expected to start in a special 600 yard event, a feature of the games, while he will also have a place on the Canadian team that will compete in the international one mile relay race.
