ORE STRIKE AT LA ROSE MINE

Striking of Shoot Gives Stopping Distance of 140 Feet of Rich Silver

(Special to Daily News)
ALICE ARM, Feb. 2.—The best news that the camp has had for some time was the word brought down from the La Rose property this week that the ore shoot had been struck at depth. And when it is considered that this breaking into the ore gives a stopping distance of 140 feet to the ore shoot exposed in the shaft, and from which ore shoot a shipment of ten tons gave smelter returns of 355 ozs. silver, it can be seen that this strike is of no mean importance to the camp.

This getting the ore at depth on the La Rose property is naturally very pleasing to the management, whose faith and efforts have been rewarded. Work on the La Rose was started last July, since which time some six hundred feet of tunnelling has been done. It is the intention of the management to extend a raise, following the ore body through to the surface.

General Jail Delivery to Follow Hunter Judgment on Judge McGill's Cases

(Special to Daily News)
VANCOUVER, Feb. 2.—A jail delivery of an unknown number of prisoners in Okalla prison cannot be averted. This was admitted today by Hon. A. M. Manson, Attorney General of British Columbia, referring to a Supreme Court judgment here yesterday which declared that juvenile judge Helen Gregory McGill's sentences during her entire term of office were without force.

It is revealed that when the woman judge was appointed by the B.C. Government the officials neglected to get the official affirmative of the Canadian government at Ottawa. Yesterday James Sinn, who was given eighteen months for an offense against a girl, secured his freedom on a habeas corpus application. Lawyers for other offenders against juveniles behind the bars are preparing to secure the release of their clients.

The Attorney General has wired Ottawa to get Judge McGill's appointment ratified, but the adjustment will not legalize the convictions already made by her.

Consolidated Exporters Fined $2,500 Today for Illegal Sale of Liquor

Magistrate McClymont finds defendant guilty and prosecuting counsel asks for extreme penalty of $4,000 this morning

Finding that the sale of liquor to E. Audahl on November 16, around which the case was centred, had not been made in good faith in the knowledge that Audahl was an American and that the liquor was for export, Magistrate McClymont in the city police court this morning convicted the Consolidated Exporters Corporation Ltd. on a charge of unlawfully selling intoxicating liquor in violation of the Government Liquor Act and imposed a fine of $2,500. Thus was disposed of the first of a series of charges against the Consolidated Company. There is one further charge of unlawful selling and several involving alleged falsification of records.

The second of the selling cases is proceeding this afternoon, having been called at 2:30. In announcing his decision this morning, Magistrate McClymont stated that, after hearing the evidence as to the facts, he found (continued from page five)

Monied Interests of East are Trying to Control Government States Premier Mackenzie King

Liberal Party Stands for Unity of all Canadians Declares Leader at Luncheon in His Honor at Prince Albert

PRINCE ALBERT, Feb. 2.—Premier Mackenzie King opened his campaign here last night with a speech in which he charged that the monied interests of Eastern Canada were endeavoring to get control of the Government of the country. He referred to Mr. Meighen's tariff policy, saying: "Back of this protectionist thought lies the desire of a few men of great wealth to get political control of the country. That the topic of real interest in Canada today was whether a few men who are very wealthy and who have certain established privileges, who reside for the most part in Eastern Canada and in Montreal more than anywhere else, whether these few men are going to succeed in getting political control in this country so that they can make the policies of Canada over to their monied interests and their selfish purposes."

Mr. King further declared that in the last election the country was "face to face with as great a conspiracy as any country ever faced."

Desire For Unity
If the Liberal Party has stood for one thing above another, said Premier Mackenzie King at a luncheon here yesterday, it has stood for the "desire to unite the different elements and bring together all different parts of our country under policies which will make for unity, harmony, advancement and progress."

The fact that he, a man from the East was asked to seek election for a seat in the House of Commons in Prince Albert, said the Premier, was because the electors entertained first and foremost the idea of a strong, united Canada.

Declaring that he still believes reciprocity to be a good thing for Canada, Mr. Mackenzie King said: "If we wish to build up our home markets we must seek to further the interests of the agricultural element in our country, seek to develop this great Canadian west."
