Pooley Charges That Conservatives Are In Pay of The Liberals

F. Tolmie Admits Disagreement in His Own Party and Urges Unity to Defeat the Enemy

VANCOUVER, November 28 .- At the annual meeting of the ovincial Conservative Association Saturday R. H. Pooley, House leader, reiterated previous statements that there were old-time Conervatives in the pay of Liberals.

His previous statements had been questioned by D. B. Plunkett of Victoria, but he said he had in his possession a photographic copy of a check which he offered as proof of what he said and he
