BANKERS WIN OVER GROTTO BY DOUBLING SCORE—TERMINALS BEAT ELKS

Tuxis 18; Colts 15.
 Elevator 28; Terminals 48.
 Grotto 16; Bankers 28.
 Elks 24; Terminals 37.

Two surprises were sprung on the fans last night in the regular basketball fixtures. The Bankers smothered the champion Grotto team by a score of 28 to 16 and the Elks went down to defeat before the Grand Terminals by a score of 37 to 24. Interest was keen throughout the while evening but possibly the Grotto-Bankers game aroused the greatest amount of enthusiasm. All games were very well contested and the Elevator boys, although left on the short end of the score, were serious contenders and showed marked improvement in their play. On Friday evening it is expected that a team from Port Simpson will visit the city and play with an intermediate team.

Results of individual scoring were as follows:

 Tuxis—H. Heilbroner, B. Hunt, 10, W. Patmore 2, J. Currie 4, E. Smith 2, Total 18.

SPORT CHAT

Last night saw some postponed games in the men's whist league played, bringing the schedule up to date. The Moose have firmly established themselves in first place with three teams vying for the second position. Interest in the remaining games of the schedule which concludes on March 3 should be keen as all the teams have four games yet to play.

Interest in the billiard league has somewhat revived recently due in part to the two wins of the Moose over the Terminals and the Gyros. Nine games remain to be played extending over five weeks so that anything might happen before the end of the schedule. The Moose, however, are very much encouraged over their recent wins and should prove serious contenders for the championship if they maintain their present form for the remainder of the series.
