DAILY EDITION.

WILL GET ROAD. Prince Rupert will get its road. The Conservatives, at their on the workings of the law. convention in Kamloops last fall, approved the project. Now the Liberal convention has gone on record in its favor. No matter who should be in power, both sides are pledged to its construction.

Having the project approved, however, is only a small part of the battle. The big thing now is: How long is it going to take to get it built. Prince Rupert does not want to see a small appropriation made each year, just enough for the government to get by with the excuse that it is implementing its promise. Prince Rupert wants the road built at once so that it will be some use.

It will be necessary for the people of Prince Rupert to keep up the battle to assure that this is done.

Taking premiers of the last two decades or more, one comes to the late lamented Sir Richard McBride, who was affable and astute; Hon. W. J. Bowser, aloof and strong; and Hon. H. C. Brewster, who, unfortunately, was not spared so that his abilities might be put to the test.

John Oliver, old though he may be but none the less able, is one of the brightest figures in Canadian public life today. He has ably led the provincial government for the last ten years. His rugged frame has passed and conquered many vicissitudes and, ripened with struggles and RUPERTROAD AT experience, he knows what his fellow strugglers want and every RUPERTROAD AT act bears earmarks of effort for their benefit.

It is noticeable that his political opponents while, rightly or wrongly, may make charges against his colleagues, have never issued accusation against John Oliver. His honesty and conscientiousness all concede and many pay tribute to.

The presentation made to John Oliver on Friday night by the B.C. Liberal Association was but a small though tangible token of the appreciation in which he is held. His great reward and the gift he will always enjoy is the knowledge that he has worked sincerely and well for British Columbia and that that work is appreciated by his political opponents as well as his supporters.

WHICH CLASS ARE YOU IN?

Few persons enjoy really perfect health, declares Dr. William Everett Musgrave, writing in Hygeia for February. For many generations physicians have divided people into groups according to their state of health. Some of these based on current conditions and knowledge, follows: 1, healthy persons who have no discoverable defects; they constitute the smallest group. 2, persons who think themselves healthy but nevertheless have significant impair- hibited, coffee was served and a period ments. AUTOMOBILE TRAGEDIES IN SOUTH-ERN CITY TO BE PROBER BY ASSOCIATION and the early part of 1927 caused by automobile accidents, will be thoroughly investigated by the Automobile Club of British Columbia, in connection with its study of the widely-advocated com pulsory insurance laws, now being introduced all over the continent, it is announced, as part of the club's policy in protecting the motorist as a class from unwise legislation and misdirect ed public opinion. From 7,429 accidents reported by the Police Department of Vancouver alone, there was a staggering total of twentyfour deaths and 706 injuries caused by ity. automobiles in 1926, according to information supplied by Ald. F. E. Woodside. Automobile Club director and member of the special investigating committee who states that many of these cases went without compensation of any kind, This was due, he told the committee at its recent meeting, to the fact that many of these accidents involved drivers who were financially irresponsible.

SUGGESTIONS MADE FOR HIGHWAY CONNECTION BETWEEN ALASKA AND SOUTHERN B.C.

Editor, Daily News:

I write you of a social event that may be of interest in Prince Rupert which took place on the evening of March in San Francisco. A surprise party of friends gathered at the home of Captain and Mrs. E. H. Taylor, the occasion being a birthday anniversary of Captain Taylor. Preceding the usual small talk. jokes, jibes, jests and laughter, a delicate and very tasty spread of edibles was laid, of which the company participated with fervor.

In a very graceful manner she led the conversation, on the necessity of public improvements in the North Country, behighway from Ashcroft to Ketchikan. with laterals leading to the respective towns. Several Prince Rupert people were present. Our esteemed hostess (nee Miss Bernice Palmer) became much enthused over the prospect. To abbreviate, the subject became extremely interesting, which resulted in a series of resolutions, suggested by the English lady and unanimously adopted by the twenty-five present.

The resolutions follow: Whereas that portion of the province of British Columbia lying north of Ashcroft and bearing northwesterly to Ketchikan, is a vast Empire of rich natural resources, the development of which is greatly retarded for the want of a paved public highway; and

Whereas the country being mountainous a public highway would entail a large expenditure of public money; and Whereas the political weight of the province being in the south, government appropriations are difficult to obtain: Whereas said highway would prove great commercial asset to civic. provincial, and federal governments; and Whereas American Alaska is linked with British Columbia socially, finan-

Never did a Cup of Coffee taste as good as this ....

> Such a remark is a tribute to any hostess-but it is deserved when coffee is served with Eagle Brand Condensed Milk instead of cream and sugar.

> Eagle Brand improves the finest cup of coffee, gives it a richer "body," a delicious mellow flavour, a tempting golden color. Eagle Brand is pure creamy milk, thoroughly blended with granulated sugar. It is not only more satisfactory in coffee than ordinary cream, or top-milk, and sugar, but more economical, as well. It keeps perfectly in the open tin until used. Your grocer can supply you.
