

CHILDREN'S PARTY HELD AT TERRACE

Forty-five Youngsters Gathered in Honor of David Townsell, Leaving For Vancouver

TERRACE, March 23.—Miss Easthope was hostess on Saturday evening in Badminton hall at a delightful children's party given as a farewell for David Townsell before his departure on Tuesday for Vancouver.

Teams were chosen and many interesting contests in racing, skipping, marbles, etc., were carried through amid much merriment.

During the evening the children formed a circle around the guest of honor and sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and wishes were expressed for a joyous and prosperous life in the city.

Abundance of delicious refreshments provided by the hostess were thoroughly enjoyed by the children.

Miss Easthope was assisted in entertaining her young guests by the Misses Sibary Malott and Peters.

ROY CLOTHIER BUYS PROPERTY IN SLOCAN

Purchases Dardenelles Group of Claims Near Sandon—Commence Operations in June

Roy L. Clothier, of Victoria, well known in the north and especially Stewart, where he resided for a number of years, has bought the Dardenelles group of claims near Sandon, in the Slocan. The Dardenelles was formerly owned by Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, of Vancouver, and the late Captain Charles Clarke and Edward White and J. T. L. Meyers of Victoria.

The workings were closed down twenty years ago owing to lack of demand for lead and zinc. Mr. Clothier intends to start operations on the property in June.

STEWART

It is reported in reputable mining circles that a consolidation of the Premier, B.C. Silver and Sebakwe mining properties is being negotiated.

Such a consolidation has been predicted for many years by those who know the district, the properties being adjoining. The situation is such that it would appear to be a logical move.

Directors of the Porter-Idaho Mining Co. deny published statements that the company has completed arrangements for financing construction of two and a half miles of tramway during the coming season.

The Stewart Board of Trade held a dinner on Friday in compliment to Robert Stewart, president of the Dunwell mine, and departmental heads of the company.

The Union steamer Catala, paying her first visit to Stewart last week, made a favorable impression and there was a large crowd at the wharf to view the vessel.
