Alberta Judicature Act

EDMONTON, March 23.—Separation of at Victoria, B.C. man and wife without the necessity for divorce proceedings, with the payment of a living allowance to the wife and family where the husband's conduct, in the opinion of the courts, warrants a separation, is aimed at in a public bill seeking to amend the judicature act of the province, and introduced in the Alberta legislature by os. T. Shaw, Liberal leader.

The proposed amendment is to section Assigned, in store at Lockeport, B.C. 21, by adding as a new sub-section, the following: ("la.) The wife shall be entitled to alimony in the discretion of the court sociation, Vancouver, B.C. where, without reasonable excuse, the any tender not necessarily accepted. husband's course of conduct, whether by words or acts, or by neglect, caus grevious physical or mental suffering through the course of conduct complained of need not be such as to cause danger to life, limb or health or a reasonable apprehension thereof, and where in addition the court is satisfied that it is desirable in the interest of the husband or wife, or either of them, or of their child or children, if any, that the wife should live separate from her husband." A newspaper caffed "The New Statesman," says Mussolini, is a nuisance, a nightmare and a mountebank. It may be gathered that "The New Statesman" Phone 109' is not printed in Italy.
