During the night the lowest thermometer reading was 16 degrees above zero, according to report made at the Digby Island meteorological station this morning. Arrival of snow this morning gave promise of relief from the recent cold snap.

Ald. Brown urged at the meeting of the hospital board last night that a light should be placed in the lane between the nurses' home and hospital for the convenience of nurses passing between the two buildings. The matter was referred to the house committee with power to act.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Arseneau, who were recently married in the city, the bride having formerly been Miss Agnes Gratton, returned on the Prince Rupert this morning from a honeymoon trip south and will visit here for a few days before proceeding to Premier where they will make their home.

H. O. Crewe, pioneer resident of the city and for the past several years with the city engineering department, will sail Friday morning aboard the Prince Rupert for Vancouver en route to New Westminster where he plans to start in business. Mrs. Crewe and daughter are already in residence in the south.

During the month of November hospital collections totalled $4,754.26 with disbursements of $4,704.45 leaving a surplus of $49.81 according to report made at the meeting of the board last night by Ald. G. P. Tinker, chairman of the finance committee. There were 1321 hospital days at a cost of $3.44 per hospital day.

While there are not an exceptionally large number of patients, work in the hospital just now is nevertheless heavy according to report made by Miss Jean Harrison, R.N., lady superintendent, at the board meeting last night. There are a number of cases of burns which require considerable attention on the part of the nursing staff.

We have just received another lovely lot of fur coats, consisting of muskrat, calfskin, French seal, Hudson seal, Persian Lamb and Grey Krimmer Lamb. These are all in the latest styles, and from now until Christmas we are making a special offer of one third off the selling price. Do not miss this opportunity of getting a lovely coat at a reasonable price.—W. Goldbloom, Second Avenue. tf

It was suggested by Director H. B. Rochester at the meeting of the hospital board last night that the bell register on the women's floor created considerable disturbance to patients and that it should be moved from its present location in a corridor to the diet kitchen. Failing that a buzzer should be installed to replace the bell or a light system put in. The matter was left to the house committee for investigation and action.

The next trip of the Canadian Pacific Steamer Princess Mary has been arranged as a Special Christmas Sailing and will leave Prince Rupert on the afternoon of December 21, arriving in Vancouver on December 23 in time for passengers to make connections with steamers for Vancouver Island ports, Seattle and other destinations in the vicinity. Passengers desiring to travel via Canadian Pacific should make early reservations for there will be a heavy list of holiday seekers from Alaska and the Yukon. Phone 21 or call at City Ticket office on Third Avenue. 295

The tea and sale of home cooking held yesterday afternoon by the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid at the home of Mrs. L. W. Patmore, Borden Street, was a very successful affair both socially and financially. Mrs. McRobbie and Mrs. Watson were in charge of the home cooking table.

Nomination of officers for the year 1928 took place at the regular monthly business luncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club in the Commodore Cafe today. The election will take place early in January. Other business pertaining to the affairs of the club was discussed at the meeting which was presided over by E. A. Mann, president. It was reported that about $100 was cleared as a result of a recent dance in aid of the Morse Creek skating rink project.

On application of Milton Gonzales, defence counsel, who stated that his client was ill, adjournment was allowed this morning by Magistrate McClymont in the case of Ben Self, who is charged with being the keeper of a common gaming house at the Grand Terminal Club, until Saturday morning. Charges against several alleged frequenters are also adjourned until that time. On suggestion of E. F. Jones, city solicitor appearing for the prosecution, a doctor's certificate will be required on Saturday should Mr. Self be unable to appear.
