SUPERVISOR OF WOMEN IMMIGRANTS SAY 8,000 HAVE COME UNDER EMPIRE SETTLEMENT SCHEME

EDMONTON, June 23.—Since June, 1923, approximately 8,000 women immigrants have come to Canada under the Empire Settlement scheme, to engage in household service, and of this number eighty per cent have made good, says Miss M. V. Burnham, of Ottawa, supervisor of the women's branch of the Department of Immigration, Ottawa. Miss Burnham has been making a tour of western Canada, inspecting facilities for the accommodation of women immigrants, looking into the requirements of the country for next spring, and conferring with members of the immigration staff.

Winnipeg, Regina, and Calgary have their government hotels for the temporary accommodation of these newcomers. In Edmonton they are put up at the Y.W.C.A. and Rosary Hall, placed in positions by the employment services, and supervised by Ernest Wilson of the immigration department. Miss Burnham is going into the records of those who have been placed and sizing up the requirements for next spring. She consults with authorities in each province, gets an estimate of their requirements, then tries to fill this quota.

NOMINATING SCHEME
In addition to the women coming out under the Empire settlement scheme, there are many coming out under the nominating scheme. Nomination papers are placed in all banks of Canada, and anyone nominating a prospective immigrant, fills in one of these papers and sends it direct to Ottawa.

Through this system, the department is able to give service to rural communities. The office has had many applications from all over the dominion, in numerous cases, from people who wish to bring out relatives to work on farms under the reduced rate.

The result is very satisfactory on the whole, but it means a great deal of supervision. The dominion government is responsible for the after care of the immigrants coming out under the Empire Settlement scheme. Records of each case are kept and individual attention is given to all problem cases. Each large centre has women investigating officers to look after these. The department has also placed conductresses on all trains to look after women, children and young girls travelling to their new homes. Among other duties, it falls to their lot to supervise the feeding of the small children, and many a youngster is thus saved from illness through injudicious feeding on the part of a good mother, unversed in travelling.

A good type of British family is coming out under the 3,000 family settlement scheme, says Miss Burnham, and on the whole, things are working out very well.

DINNER GIVEN ON STEAMSHIP
PRINCE RUPERT CITY COUNCIL AND BOARD OF TRADE EXECUTIVE GUESTS

The president, vice-president and members of the executive of the Board of Trade, Mayor Newton and the members of the city council and others in official positions were last evening the guests of the Vancouver Board of Trade at dinner on board the C.P.R. steamship Princess Alice. It was a very happy event and was enlivened by community singing and other musical events at which a lot of hitherto undeveloped musical talent was discovered. Robert McKee, president of the Vancouver Board, presided, while John Noble was song leader.

DINNER GIVEN ON STEAMSHIP

It was not intended to make this the occasion for speeches but rather an opportunity to get to know each other better. In this it succeeded and a most enjoyable hour and a half was spent by the visitors. The only speeches were very short, by Thomas Dixon, vice-president of the Vancouver Board of Trade, and by F. G. Dawson, Mr. Dixon expressed the pleasure the Vancouver people felt at being able to entertain their Prince Rupert guests and stated that the idea of the members of the Vancouver Board was to help build up British Columbia and not only their own particular section of it. If there was anything they could do for Prince Rupert they would be glad to do it.

F. G. Dawson, on behalf of the guests, thanked the Vancouver Board for their hospitality and assured them of the co-operation of Prince Rupert in helping to make the province more prosperous. He invited them all to attend the dance which was to follow the dinner.

DANCE GIVEN FOR VISITORS

Ladies of Prince Rupert did their part in connection with the entertainment of the Vancouver Board of Trade visitors by turning out in strength to be their dancing partners at the ball in the Moose Hall last night. The southern boardmen were out to a man and the crowd in attendance numbered about 250. It was a jolly party and everyone, particularly the visitors, pronounced it a wonderful success.

DANCE GIVEN FOR VISITORS

Party in Moose Hall for Vancouver Board of Trade was lively and enjoyable affair.

The fortunate poker player who could point to his home as "the house that Jack built" had nothing on Edward Small, who built "McFadden's Flats" for the screen from nothing more weighty than grins, chuckles and uproarious guffaws.
