This city is no exception to the rule. Others have the same thing. Somewhat similar mixtures are used in almost every city on the continent on some of the streets. Next week it will be all over.

There must be an Irish strain in all of us for we all love a fight, even a dog fight.

PRODUCING MINES AT STEWART

Stewart district has four producing mines according to H. W. Rolston, the owner of the Portland Canal News, who has been visiting in Vancouver. Between baseball games, football games, swimming, picnicking and boating, there seems to be plenty of outdoor amusement here considering that there are scarcely nine thousand people in the city.

OPTIMISM OF BANKERS

Bankers have recently become very optimistic. Here is what individual help, since not more than the Royal Bank says in its report:

For Victoria the city, our own capital city of British Columbia, is going into the movies. Not only that, but Victoria is prepared to pay the piper in advance of calling the tune. The people of Victoria have voted, 2137 to 663, to approve a by-law, by which the city will guarantee the securities, to the extent of $200,000, of a film corporation, with Victoria as its headquarters and the place of its studios.

It has not been accomplished without a great deal of heartburning, this notable decision of Victoria to challenge the artistic pretensions of Hollywood. There have been public meetings, with the mayor and the city council united against one lone alderman who was "agin" it. There have been letters in the Victoria news- congregation of Oxford University depapers-a form of public activity in which Victoria has always been miles ahead of any other city in the British Empire. The issue was to one for every four male students, complicated by a collateral proposal to finance a municipal cold much comment, derisive or humorous, storage plant. But the civic pride of Victoria was aroused. Its blood was up. It makes nothing of those adventures when it makes up its mind. So it made up its mind at last-and now Victoria is to have both its cold storage plant and its film studio.

OXFORD, Eng., July 21 .- Since the cided to limit the enrollment of women has been indulged in. One thing would seem certain, and that is that the "female peril" is by no means so great as to justify the action for some time to Women are hardly stronger at Oxford the recent examinations, their most ardent advocate could hardly say they women could beat the men would seem to have passed. Even in modern and medieval languages, in which the women used to do better than men so far as this year were left far behind.

The only Tripos in which the fair sex even held their own, was the recently introduced Geographical Tripos. In the second part of this Tripos one woman and one man share premier honors, while in the first part first-class honors are divided between five men and three women. Among the three women was Miss 0. P. Smuts, daughter of General Jan C . Smuts.

However, the co-eds, as they would be called in Canada, may take heart from the remarkable success of Miss Gertrude E. Trevelyan, who is the first woman to win the Newdigate prize for English verse at Oxford. Miss Trevelyan declares she sent in the prize poem "for a joke" and that she had written very little verse before she attempted to win the prize. The winning effort was 250 lines of blank verse on the prescribed subject, "Julia, daughter, of Claudius." Miss Newdigate is at Lady Margaret College, and her fellow-students were extremely gratified at her success.
