TICKET CLERKS ON TOUR WEST

Last of Such Trips is Now in Progress

WINNIPEG, Sept. 15.—For the express purpose of procuring the widest possible knowledge of the territory covered by the Canadian National Railways, a party of 25 ticket clerks from eastern Canada will arrive in Winnipeg this evening, on a tour as far west as Jasper, Prince Rupert, Vancouver and Victoria. The system of educating the ticket clerks of the railway by these cross-Canada tours was inaugurated by the president, Sir Henry Thornton and, according to Canadian National passenger traffic officials, has proved of great benefit. As all the ticket clerks who deal with passengers interested in lengthy trips will have been, with this tour through the traveling school, this will be the last of these educational trips for some time, it is announced.

The men will arrive in Winnipeg this evening and will leave tomorrow night for Regina. While they are here they will be entertained to motor drives around the city and to luncheon and dinner at the Fort Garry Hotel. At the luncheon Friday, Mayor Webb, T. J. Porte, chairman of the tourist and convention bureau, and J. M. Davidson, secretary of the industrial development board, will be speakers. Osborne Scott, general passenger agent Canadian National Railways will be in the chair.

The party will make stops at Regina, Edmonton, Jasper and Prince Rupert, proceeding from the latter port to Vancouver and Victoria by Canadian National steamships and on the return journey stopping at Edmonton, Calgary, Saskatoon, Minaki and Toronto.

TERRACE

Professor Wickenden of Emmanuel College, Saskatoon, who spent several days renewing acquaintances around town, left for the east on Tuesday.

Miss Bushby of Prince Rupert arrived on Monday's delayed train to visit at the home of Mrs. R. L. McIntosh.

Miss Kemp, missionary at Kitwanga, who visited here for several days with Mrs. Ardagh returned to the interior on Tuesday morning.

A number of the gardens in the vicinity of Terrace were touched with frost on Monday night and many of the more tender plants were frozen. Gardens within the townsite were not affected. Indications pointed to even more severe frost the following night but a strong wind arose in the night which saved the situation.

Building operations have now commenced on the new home of C. L. M. Giggey just south of the railway, Wm. Little having charge of the work. Mr. Giggey intends installing a small sawmill on the same grounds.

The Ladies' Guild of Knox United Church spent a pleasant afternoon on Monday when they arrived en masse at the home of Mrs. Emil Haughland, a recent bride, and presented her with a miscellaneous shower of useful and pretty gifts. Mrs. Haughland expressed her appreciation of the kindly feeling expressed. A social afternoon was enjoyed, ending with the serving of refreshments by the guests.

Mrs. R. W. Riley was a tea hostess on Tuesday afternoon in compliment to her mother, Mrs. Myers of Vancouver.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Terrace Hospital held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. D. D. Munro on Tuesday afternoon when work was carried on as usual. Discussion took place in regard to handling the work of the hospital auxiliary through the newly organized Women's Institute, and Mrs. C. R. Gilbert, the president, was empowered to tell the Institute that the hospital auxiliary desired to amalgamate in some way with the new organization, details in that connection to be worked out when more partculars of institute work were available. Tentative arrangements were also formulated and committees named for the annual novelty ball of the hospital auxiliary to be held at hollowe'en.

A meeting of the directors appointed at the organization meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Tuesday afternoon and officers appointed as follows: Mrs. George Dover was appointed president with Mrs. S. Scamen secretary-treasurer. As soon as the necessary literature comes through from the government a public meeting of the ladies will be called and a study made of the institute work in order to decide how to best serve the needs of the community through the medium of the Women's Institute.

H. B. Rochester, Prince Rupert, was a business visitor here on Tuesday and Wednesday.

TRIPLETS ARRIVE AT MATERNITY HOSPITAL

MONTREAL, Sept. 15.—By way of bestowing its official blessing upon the maternity department of the new Woman's General Hospital building, the stork arrived there with triplets one noon recently. These three newcomers, a boy and two girls, were presented to Mrs. J. Ellis, of this city.

Through some error, Mr. Ellis, who had brought his wife to the hospital, was first informed only that he had a son. This was contradicted by another member of the staff who declared that twins had been added to the population of the hospital, and it remained for the superintendent to impart the correct information.

CHINESE WIDOWS GIVEN NEW STATUS

SHANGHAI, Sept. 15.—Heretofore, the widow in China, whether young or old when she remarried has been a "person of no dignity" but the day appears to be arriving when such a condition no longer exists. The Nationalist Government through its woman's organizations has decreed that such reference is "obsolete" and "must be corrected."

One of the goals of the woman's department of the Nationalist government is to bring about conditions where a woman may achieve social and economic independence.
