BANDAGE SELLER LATEST OF STREET MERCHANTS

"Bandages! Three a Penny." He cries at Danger Point for Motorists
LONDON, Nov. 22.—"Bandages! Three a penny." This cry may be heard on the London to Southend arterial road every week-end.

The bandage seller has his store in a sinder attached to a motor-cycle, and throughout the busy part of the afternoon and evening he keeps up a regular patrol on the most dangerous portions of the thoroughfare, including that part known to motorists as "suicide corner." Unfortunately, or fortunately, whichever way you look at it, business is not brisk with this dispenser of bandages.

Travellers on the main Dover road Farningham have often remarked on the presence during the week-end of a small bell tent, at the cross roads, bearing the famous Red Cross of Geneva.

On the main Brighton road through Kingswood, near Reigate, can be seen a little white box. Pasted in a conspicuous position to the front garden fence, this box contains first-aid outfits for whoever requires them—a kindly thought. A similar box can be seen on the old Brighton road.

In addition to these facilities, the road scouts and patrols of the Automobile Association carry dressings in their lockers one or more of the "First Aid Dressings," originally prepared for the troops in the field, but which were flung on to the market at ridiculous prices at the close of hostilities.

RAIDED ROOMS OF FINANCIER

Burglar Was Seeking Information Rather Than Loot Sir Edward Believes

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Sir Edward Mackay Edgar, the Canadian financier, whose flat in Mayfair was recently entered by thieves, says he believes the intruders were searching for important private papers. "I have little doubt," Sir Edward told a London newspaper reporter, "that there are many people who would like to get some inside information about many large transactions I have been carrying out of late.

"When I am in the flat and have these big transactions on, I always bolt the door downstairs in case any of my enemies, and I have a good number of them, should send along a thug to attack me. When I am out of the flat, however, I cannot use the bolt."

Sir Edward said he did not think the persons who entered his flat went away any the wiser because he always took good care not to leave written information about his financial transactions lying about anywhere.

OBJECT NOT ROBBERY
Jewellery worth between $2,000 and $2,500 had been taken from the flat but it is believed that the reason for taking this was to conceal the real object of the raid. Sir Edward's personal papers had been gone through very thoroughly and were left lying about.

Sir Edward was the first to discover the burglary. The flat was empty at the time as he had sent his manservant home. He himself was on his way to a party when he looked in at the flat, saw a light flash at the window of the sitting room and found the front door open. The thieves had broken a pane of glass in the door and turned the latch. He waited at the door to prevent the escape of the thieves should they come out that way, until the arrival of the police he had summoned. He then went in and found the flat had been ransacked.

The thieves must have spent some time on the premises for the cupboards in Sir Edward's bedroom were in a state of disorder, drawers had been removed and the contents strewn over the floor. Bearer scrip worth thousands of pounds, which had just been sent to the bank, was in a filing cabinet in the lobby. The thieves had removed this, and it was found intact under some papers on the corner of a table. Sir Edward has been using the flat as an office.

This afternoon's train, due from the East at 3.30, is reported to be 40 minutes late.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS
Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emption is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 8,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 5,000 feet per acre east of that Range.

Applications for pre-emption are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emption must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

For more detailed information see the Bulletin "How to Pre-empt Land."

PURCHASE
Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes; minimum price for first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

Mill, factory, or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.

HOMESITE LEASES
Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.

LEASES
For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or a company.

GRAZING
Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under a Grazing Commissioner. Annual grazing permits are issued based on numbers ranged, priority being given to established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management free or partly free, permits are available for settlers, campers and travellers, up to ten head.

THE LABEL IS RED AND WHITE

BETTER COWS BETTER MILK

In order to bring to you, under the red and white Carnation label, as fine milk as the world produces, we are constantly introducing the high milk producing strain of our blue ribbon "Contented Cows" into the herds that daily supply milk to the Carnation Condenseries. In fact, one of the most famous Holstein herds in all the world is owned by the Carnation Milk Farms.

In this, as in many other ways, we insure the quality of Carnation Milk. Insure that it really will add richness and flavor whenever you use it. For Carnation is just pure, fresh milk—evaporated to double richness, "homogenized" so that every drop has its full share of cream. Diluted, it is used in cooking to give greater smoothness and richness. Undiluted, it takes the place of cream at one-third the cost of cream. Order from your grocer several tins or a case of 48 tins.

Send for a free copy of Mary Blake's Cook Book. Address Carnation Milk Products Company, Limited, Aymer, Ontario.

CARNATION CREAM CARAMELS—Two cups sugar, 2 cups corn syrup, 1/4 cup butter, 2 cups Carnation Milk, few grains salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla. Place in sauce pan over fire, sugar, syrup, salt and butter. Stir until mass boils to clear, thick consistency; then add gradually so as not to stop boiling, the Carnation Milk. Cook to 242 degrees F. or to firm ball stage, stirring constantly. Add 1 teaspoon vanilla, pour into buttered pans and mark in squares.
