Carmichael last night won the final in the men's singles of the Regimental tennis tournament by a score of 2-6, 6-4, 6-3 from Poli Howard. This completed the tournament, the ladies' singles having been won at the week-end by Mrs. S. P. McMurdie while Black and Miss Riel took the mixed doubles title.

SPORT CHAT

In anticipation of the series during Fair Week, next week, with the Stewart-Hyder baseball team, it would well behoove the locals to give themselves a little warming up in advance for the crowd from the northern mining camp is said to be a likely looking squad which will not be downed so easily. Prince Rupert seniors have only contested with one outside aggregation—Ketchikan—so far this season and the honors were mixed. We want to show these mining men some of the fine points of the game and, if we shall do so, no later than now is the time to get busy in working out.

An effort is being made to put the game of badminton on the map at Edmonton. Various church and social societies are taking it up and the efforts to popularize it in the Alberta metropolis gave promise of bearing success. Several people have decided to establish either clubs or private courts during the coming season.

In the football game this evening Grand Terminals will have to win 3-0, or 3-1 in order to get a place in the playoffs. Their team will be chosen from S. Gurvich, H. Menzies, G. Howe, G. Hill, G. Hadden, J. Sims, D. Gurvich, E. Warren, S. Dickens, A. Strachan, J. Hamilton, DeJohn and B. Hunt.

NO MONOPOLY ON MARINE DISASTERS

No company or line of steamships has a monopoly on marine disasters. The Princess Charlotte was in charge of one of the most experienced men on the coast yet she met with an accident. Happily in this, as in most similar cases, there was no loss of life and very little discomfort to the passengers.

A similar accident occurred at Seymour Narrows recently when one of the big Prince boats struck. In that case also it was an experienced skipper who had charge of the vessel. No one was hurt and very little inconvenience was suffered by the passengers.

SWIMMING MARATHON

Congratulations are coming to the winner of the big swimming marathon yesterday. The race was held in fresh water and it was very cold. Those who took part were handicapped very much by this. It was very largely a matter of physical endurance. Unhappily the lad on whom Canadians were banking to win the event, was taken with cramps and had to drop out. Possibly the excitement was too great for one so young. However, George Young made a good effort and is deserving of credit. Possibly he overstrained.

HOME OF LACROSSE RETAINS LEAD

New Westminster, the home of lacrosse in British Columbia, has retained the provincial championship and is in line to meet the winners in other provinces. This is as it should be. New Westminster is looked upon as the one place where the national game is popular in B.C. It is rather a pity that the example of that city cannot be followed in other centres.

SHOWING FAITH IN CITY

Olier Besner is showing faith in Prince Rupert. He spent a lot of money on his home and now he is putting a lot more into a block on Third Avenue which will be a credit to the city. This is the sort of thing that tends to inspire others with confidence here. People do not build of concrete in a place where they think business will not be good. Doubtless Mr. Besner has reasons for his faith. He made his money here and is spending it here. That is more than a good many others do.

COST OF DESPATCHES

The Daily News has to pay heavily for press despatches and yet yesterday we carried five hundred words or thereabouts on the Princess Charlotte accident and a long telegraphic despatch on the big swimming marathon from Toronto in addition to a full service covering other Canadian and world activities. It costs a lot of money to do this but we are trying to give a service here that is second to none in a city the size of this. While a good many people appreciate this, there are still some who scoff and try to belittle the efforts of this paper to serve the people of Prince Rupert.

Autumn is in the air. Let us meet winter bravely.

The German invasion of Canada has begun. The winning of the big swimming prize at Toronto was a greater honor than to take possession of the country by killing a lot of the inhabitants.
