MINING MEN ON ALICE ARM ORE

Subject of Conversation in North is the New Vanguard Strike

W. S. Harris, the mining man who arrived in the city from Anyox yesterday, says the people of that district are talking of nothing but the big ore strike on the Vanguard. He claims that the finding of this ore at depth insures the developing of a big mine. F. D. Rice, who is interested in Alice Arm, declares that this mine means much more to Alice Arm than the Premier does to Stewart because the development of a big low grade ore body is always more benefit to a place than a high grade proposition.

WELL KNOWN COUPLE WED

Miss White Became Bride of Charles Joseph Currie This Morning

An interesting wedding took place this morning at 9.30 in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral when Miss Winifred Rubens White, elder daughter of Mrs. David McCullough, 310 Seventh Avenue, West, was united in marriage by Rev. Prof. W. F. Barfoot to Charles Joseph Currie, second son of Mr. and Mrs. John Currie, 840 Third Avenue, East.

The bride, who was prettily gowned, was given away by her stepfather, David McCullough, and was attended by her sister, Miss Evelyn White. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were in attendance at the ceremony. Flowers for the occasion were presented by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sherman.

Following the ceremony the happy couple left aboard the groom's powerboat Ruby Mae on a cruise to Vancouver and other southern points. On their return to the city in about three weeks' time, they will take up residence in their new home on Graham Avenue.

Congratulations and best wishes will be extended to the couple by a host of friends in the city. Both bride and groom have resided here since early childhood and are equally popular and well known. Mrs. Currie has been a member of the municipal telephone staff for the past couple of years. Mr. Currie is engaged with his father in the contracting business.

The bride has been the guest of honor at several social events recently, including showers by Mrs. George Leek and Mrs. D. McLeod. Her former associates in the telephone exchange presented her with a beautiful reading lamp.

The painting is the work of the well-known artist, A. V. Long, of Vancouver. The order for this work was placed some little time ago, but the fact that the late Premier was ill prevented Mr. Long from obtaining the sittings which he had expected. In spite of this handicap the picture is an excellent likeness of Mr. Oliver.
